Our Will and Pleasure therefore is, that the following Rules and Regulations be established on these heads, and that all persons whom it may in any way concern do strictly observe and obey the same.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this ninth day of December, 1859, in the 23rd year of Our Reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,
SIDNEY HERBERT.

REGULATIONS.

CLAUSE 1. Any Person who, as a Non-commissioned Officer or Soldier, shall have completed the term of Service for which he was originally enlisted, not being less than 10 years in Infantry, or 12 in Cavalry, Artillery, or Engineers, or who, after 5 years' Service, has been discharged for any cause other than Misconduct, without a permanent Pension, may, provided he is approved, and engages for such Service by a Declaration in the Form hereto annexed, be enrolled to serve in the Reserve Force, under the authority of the Act noted in the margin,* for such period as may be wanting to complete 21 years, if he originally enlisted in the Infantry, or 24 years if he enlisted in Cavalry, Artillery, or Engineers, reckoning two years' Service in such Reserve Force as one towards the attainment of these several periods of Service, provided that such person shall be enrolled within 5 years after his discharge from the Army.

2. Till other arrangements are authorized, the persons composing this Reserve Force shall be attached during periods of Training and Exercise, or when called out for the other purposes specified in the said Act, to any Infantry Regiment or Depôt, or to the Enrolled Pensioner Force, whichever may, by the Secretary of State for War, be considered most convenient, and shall obey all Orders of the Officers or Non-commissioned Officers of such Regiment, Depôt, or Enrolled Pensioner Force, while so attached.

3. Every person thus enrolled shall be bound to register his place of abode in the Books of the Pension District in which he receives Enrolment Money, and to abide thereat, and not remove therefrom, without giving due notice; and the distance of his residence is not, in any case, except by special authority, to exceed 30 miles from the Head Quarters of such Pension District.

4. All persons enrolled in this Reserve Force shall be bound to attend regularly at the hour and place of assembly, when called out for Training and Exercise, either with the Regiment Depôt or Pensioner Force to which they may have been attached as aforesaid, for a period not exceeding 12 days in each year, or at any time and place, when called on for the preservation of the public peace, or during such period as Her Majesty may require their services within the United Kingdom, in the event of invasion or imminent danger thereof, or in case of War ; on all which occasions they will be under the command of the General Commanding in Chief of Her Majesty's Forces, and subject to the Articles of War.

5. All persons failing to attend on these occasions without reasonable cause, or when they have volunteered their services for permanent duty, or who may be convicted of any serious misconduct or breach of discipline while so employed, or of violence or disrespect at any time towards the Officers entrusted with their payment and superintendence, or who shall be guilty of any fraudulent statement at their enrolment, shall, in addition to any other penalty, be liable to dismissal from the Force, with the forfeiture wholly or in part of the several advantages authorized by this Warrant.

6. On the termination of the period of Service for which these men have engaged in the Reserve Force, and on the fulfilment of the other conditions, they shall be entitled to the same rates of Pension as they would have attained by the Warrants under which they originally enlisted, had they continued to serve in the Corps from which they were discharged till they completed the period of 21 and 24 years respectively, and they shall be permitted to add to such Pension an amount equal to the Good-conduct Pay of which they had been in continuous receipt for two years immediately preceding the date of their discharge. Such Pension, however, shall in no case exceed Tenpence a day for a Private, One Shilling for a Corporal, or One Shilling and Threepence for a Serjeant or other superior Non-commissioned Officer; but except by special authority no Service shall be reckoned for any year in which the person enrolled has not resided at his registered place of abode, or has unlawfully absented himself during any portion of the exercise for which he shall have been called out in terms of the Act before referred to.

7. All persons enrolled in the Reserve Force who may be wounded or disabled in the execution of their duty, shall be entitled to the same Pension as, under similar circumstances and for the like service, would have been granted in the Regular Forces of Her Majesty, and when called out on permanent or continuous Duty for any period exceeding Three months, the whole of such period shall be reckoned according to the usual Regulations of the Service, and not at the rate of two years for one.

8. The Staff-Officer of the Pension District in which persons have been enrolled for this Reserve Force, or such other Officers as may be appointed for that purpose, shall keep a record of the number of days' Service performed by each person in the course of the year, as ascertained either from that Officer's own knowledge, or the report of the Commanding Officer of the Regiment or Depôt with which such person may have been trained, and also of the extent of his Service prior to leaving his Regiment, so that he may be enabled to report to the Commissioners of Chelsea Hospital when the right to Pension has been attained in each case; and the Officer or Officers by whom such person has been trained, shall also note on a Certificate to be given to him, whether the extent of Service which he was bound to perform up to the 31st of March in each year, has been regularly completed.

9. No person enrolled in the Reserve Force shall be compelled to serve in a grade lower than that which he last held in his Corps, but any interval which may take place in his Service while awaiting a vacancy shall not be allowed to reckon towards Pension. In the event, however, of such persons agreeing to serve in a lower grade till vacancies offer, they shall be entitled to reckon such Service towards the Pension of the higher grade after it has been attained.

10. The sum of 4*l.* shall be allowed annually as Enrolment money, which shall be issued to the persons composing the Reserve Force, in equal quarterly payments in advance on the 1st April, 1st July, 1st October, and 1st January, or at the period of being called out for training, as may be considered most expedient by the Secretary of State for War; but, before these payments, the Officer by whom they are made is to satisfy himself that each man is possessed of one pair of boots, two shirts, two pair of socks, and a stock, as also that all Fines for misconduct or absence during the previous trainings have been settled.

11. Every person in this Reserve Force shall receive a tunic, a pair of trowsers, and a cap, on the first and each succeeding seventh year of his enrolment, and be entitled to the same rates of Pay and Allowances when called out for training, exercise, or service, as are fixed for corresponding ranks in the Infantry of the Line, with the addition of such amount of Good-conduct Pay as the enrolled man was in receipt of at the time of his discharge.

12. While serving with a Regiment or Depôt all persons belonging to this Reserve Force shall be liable to the same punishments and penalties for offences as are prescribed by the Mutiny Act, and Articles of War for Her Majesty's other Forces; but, when serving with the Enrolled

LONDON GAZETTE of JANUARY 27, 1860.

Buckingham Palace, January 24, 1860.

THIS day Her Majesty, accompanied by His Royal Highness The Prince Consort, proceeded in state from Buckingham-Palace to the House of Peers, where she arrived soon after two o'clock; and was received, on alighting from Her state coach, by the Lord Chancellor, the Lord President, the Lord Privy Seal, Sir Augustus Clifford, officiating for the Lord Great Chamberlain (the Lord Willoughby de Eresby), the Earl Marshal, the Treasurer of the Household, Garter King of Arms, and the Yeoman Usher of the Black Rod, and proceeded to the State Robing-room in the customary manner.

Her Majesty was there robed, and the procession moved into the House in the usual order;—the crown was borne by the Marquis of Lansdowne, the sword of state by the Earl Granville, and the cap of maintenance by the Marquis of Winchester.

Her Majesty being seated on the Throne, and His Royal Highness the Prince Consort on a Chair on the left side of the Cloth of Estate, the Great Officers of State and others standing on the right and left, R. C. S. Clifford, Esq., Yeoman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a message from Her Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their immediate attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, Her Majesty was pleased to deliver the following most gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

It is with great satisfaction that I again meet you in Parliament, and have recourse to your assistance and advice.

My relations with Foreign Powers continue to be on a friendly and satisfactory footing.

At the close of the last session I informed you, that overtures had been made to me, to ascertain whether, if a conference should be held by the great powers of Europe, for the purpose of settling arrangements connected with the present state and future condition of Italy, a plenipotentiary would be sent by me to assist at such a conference. I have since received a formal invitation from the Emperor of Austria and from the Emperor of the French to send a plenipotentiary to a congress, to consist of the representatives of the eight powers who were parties to the Treaties of Vienna of 1815; the objects of such congress being stated to be, to receive communication of the Treaties concluded at Zurich; and to deliberate, associating with the above-mentioned powers the Courts of Rome, of Sardinia, and of the Two Sicilies, on the means best adapted for the pacification of

Digitized by Google

Italy, and for placing its prosperity on a solid and durable basis.

Desirous, at all times, to concur in proceedings having for their object the maintenance of peace, I accepted the invitation, but, at the same time, I made known that in such a congress I should steadfastly maintain the principle that no external force should be employed to impose upon the people of Italy any particular government or constitution.

Circumstances have arisen which have lead to a postponement of the congress, without any day having been fixed for its meeting; but whether in congress or in separate negotiation, I shall endeavour to obtain for the people of Italy freedom from foreign interference by force of arms in their internal concerns; and I trust that the affiairs of the Italian Peninsula may be peacefully and satisfactorily settled.

Papers on this subject will soon be laid before you.

I am in communication with The Emperor of the French, with a view to extend the commercial intercourse between the two countries, and thus to draw still closer the bonds of friendly alliance between them.

A dispute having arisen between Spain and Morocco, I endeavoured, by friendly means, to prevent a rupture; but, I regret to say, without success.

I will direct papers on this subject to be laid before you.

My plenipotentiary and the plenipotentiary of The Emperor of the French having, in obedience to their instructions, proceeded to the mouth of the Peiho River, in order to repair to Pekin to exchange in that city the ratifications of the Treaty of Tien-tsin, in pursuance of the Fifty-sixth Article of that Treaty, their further progress was opposed by force, and a conflict took place between the Chinese Forts at the mouth of the river and the naval forces by which the plenipotentiaries were escorted.

The allied forces displayed on this occasion their usual bravery; but, after sustaining a severe loss, were compelled to retire.

I am preparing, in concert and co-operation with The Emperor of the French, an expedition intended to obtain redress and a fulfilment of the stipulations of the Treaty of Tien-tsin.

It will be gratifying to me if the prompt acquiescence of The Emperor of China in the moderate demands which will be made by the plenipotentiaries shall obviate the necessity for the employment of force.

I have directed that papers on this subject shall be laid before you.

An unauthorized proceeding by an officer of the United States in regard to the Island of San Juan, between Vancouver's Island and the mainland, might have led to a serious collision between my forces and those of the United States. Such collision, however, has been prevented by the judicious forbearance of my naval and civil officers on the spot, and by the equitable and conciliatory provisional arrangement proposed on this matter by the Government of the United States.

I trust that the question of boundary out of which this affair has arisen may be amicably settled in a manner conformable with the just rights of the two countries, as defined by the first Article of the Treaty of 1846.

The last embers of disturbance in my East Indian dominions have been extinguished; my Viceroy has made a peaceful progress through the districts which had been the principal scene of disorder, and by a judicious combination of firmness and generosity my authority has been everywhere solidly, and, I trust, permanently, established. I have received from my Viceroy the most gratifying accounts of the loyalty of my Indian subjects, and of the good feeling evinced by the native chiefs and the great landowners of the country. The attention of the government in India has been directed to the development of the internal resources of the country; and I am glad to inform you, that an improvement has taken place in its financial prospects.

I have concluded a treaty with the Tycoon of Japan, and a treaty regarding boundaries with the Republic of Guatemala. I have directed that these treaties shall be laid before you.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons.

I have directed the estimates for the ensuing year to be laid before you. They have been prepared with a view to place the Military and Naval Services, and the defences of the country, upon an efficient footing.

I am glad to be able to inform you that the public revenue is in a satisfactory condition.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I have accepted, with gratification and pride, the extensive offers of voluntary service which I have received from my subjects. This manifestation of public spirit has added an important element to our system of national defence.

Measures will be laid before you for amending the laws which regulate the representation of the people in Parliament, and for placing that representation upon a broader and firmer basis.

I earnestly recommend you to resume your labours for the improvement of our Jurisprudence, and particularly in regard to Bankruptcy, the Transfer of Land, the Consolidation of the Statutes, and such a further fusion of law and equity as may be necessary to ensure that in every suit the rights of the parties may be satisfactorily determined by the Court in which the suit is commenced.

I am deeply gratified to observe, that the great interests of the country are generally in a sound and thriving condition ; that pauperism and crime have diminished ; and that, throughout the whole of my empire, both in the United Kingdom and in my colonies and possessions beyond sea, there reigns a spirit of loyalty, of contentment, of order, and of obedience to the law.

With heartfelt gratitude to the Almighty Ruler of nations for these inestimable blessings, I fervently pray that His beneficent power may guide your deliberations for the advancement and consolidation of the welfare and happiness of my people.

Foreign-Office, January 23, 1860.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint Charles Lennox Wyke, Esq., C.B., now Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires and Consul-General to the Republics of Guatemala, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Honduras and Salvador, and Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary on a Special Mission to those Republics, to be Her Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the Republic of Mexico.

the nature of a letter, and shall be charged and chargeable with postage as a letter, and shall be transmitted by the post in conformity with and under and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions, relating to letters posted and addressed in like manner.

4. V. And it is further ordered, that all rules and regulations made by the Consul as aforesaid shall forthwith be printed, and a copy of the same shall be affixed, and kept affixed and exhibited in some conspicuous place in the public office of the said Consul; and printed copies of the said rules and regulations shall be provided by the Consul, and sold at a price not exceeding one dollar for each copy; and for the purpose of convicting any person offending against the said rules and regulations, and for all other purposes of law whatsoever, a printed copy of the said rules and regulations, certified under the hand of the said Consul to be a true copy thereof, shall be taken as conclusive evidence of such rules and regulations; and no penalty shall be incurred, or shall be enforced, for the breach of any such rules or regulations, until the same shall have been so affixed and exhibited for one calendar month in the public office of the Consular district within which the breach of such rules or regulations shall be alleged to have been committed: Provided always, that no rule or regulation to be hereafter made by any

VII. And it is further ordered, that any charge against a British subject for a breach of any rules and regulations other than those relating to the observance of Treaties, shall in like manner be heard and determined by the Consul, and in all cases in which the penalty shall not exceed two hundred dollars, or one month's imprisonment, the Consul shall hear and determine the charge summarily, without the aid of Assessors; but where the penalty attached to a breach of any rules and regulations other than those relating to the observance of Treaties, shall amount to more than two hundred dollars, or to imprisonment for more than one month, it shall be obligatory upon the Consul, before he shall proceed to hear the charge, to summon two British subjects of good repute, residing within his district, to sit with him as Assessors, which Assessors shall, however, have no authority to decide on the innocence or guilt of the party accused, or on the amount of fine or imprisonment to be awarded to him on conviction, but it shall rest with the Consul to decide on the guilt or innocence of the party accused, and on the amount of fine or imprisonment to be awarded to him: Provided always, that in no case shall the penalty to be attached to a breach of rules and regulations, other than those for the observance of Treaties, exceed five hundred dollars, or three months' imprisonment; and provided further, that in the event of the said Assessors, or either of them, dissenting from the conviction of the party accused, or from the penalty of fine or imprisonment awarded to him by the Consul, the Consul shall take a note of such dissent, with the grounds thereof, and shall require good and sufficient security for the appearance of the party convicted, at a future time, in order to undergo his sentence or receive his discharge; and the Consul shall, within twenty days, report his decision, with all the particulars of the case, together with the dissent of the Assessors or either of them, and the grounds thereof, to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs; and Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have authority to confirm or vary, or reverse, the decision of the Consul, as to him may seem fit: Provided always, that if an appeal shall be entered against the decision of the Consul, no such report shall be made to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs on the ground of the dissent of the Assessors, or either of them, but the appeal shall be prosecuted in the manner hereinafter ordered.

Revision of decisions of subordinate Consular officers.

VIII. And it is further ordered, that in any question relating to the observance of Treaties, or of the rules and regulations for the observance of Treaties, or of rules and regulations other than those for the observance of Treaties, a report of any and every decision made by a subordinate Consular Officer, with or without the aid of Assessors, shall be sent in to the superior Consular Officer of the district, and that on the receipt of such report, the superior Consular Officer of such district shall proceed, without Assessors, to revise such decision as to him may seem fit, and such revision shall have, for the purposes of this Order, the same effect as if the case had been originally heard and determined by such superior Consular Officer, with or without the aid of Assessors: Provided always, that in any case in which the Assessors, or either of them, shall dissent from a decision of a subordinate Consular officer, such decision shall not be subject to revision by the superior Consular Officer, but, in the event of no appeal being entered as aforesaid, shall be submitted to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for revision, in the same manner as if such decision had been originally made by the superior Consular Officer.

Appeal against convictions for breach of Treaties or of Rules and Regulations.

IX. And it is further ordered, that any party tried and convicted before a Consul for a breach of any Treaty between Her Majesty and the Tycoon of Japan, or for a breach of rules and regulations for the observance of any such Treaty, or for a breach of rules and regulations other than those relating to the observance of Treaties, may appeal, after sentence given by such Consul, to the Consul-General, who shall have power to confirm, or vary or reverse, such sentence, as to such Consul-General may seem fit, and to adjudge the expenses of such appeal, and from whose decision there shall be no further appeal; and upon notice given of such appeal, which notice must be given to the Consul in writing, signed by the party appealing within fifteen days after the conviction, the Consul shall be entitled to require reasonable security from the party so appealing, which security shall, in part, consist of one or two sufficient sureties to be approved by the Consul, to the intent that, if the Consul-General should confirm or vary the sentence passed by the Consul, the appellant shall submit to such sentence and likewise pay what shall be adjudged by the Consul-General for expenses: Provided always, that the Consul shall forthwith report such appeal, and transmit a copy of the proceedings of such trial, to the Consul-General; and the party appealing against the sentence of the Consul shall be required to prosecute his appeal before the Consul-General within such time as shall be, by the Consul, with the approval of the Consul-General, assigned for the prosecution of such appeal; and if the party appealing shall not duly prosecute his appeal within such time as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Consul to enforce his sentence in the same manner as if such appeal had not been interposed.

Proceedings against offenders escaping from one Consular district to another.

X. And it is further ordered, that if any party charged with an offence committed against such Treaties, or such rules and regulations as aforesaid, shall escape or remove from the Consular district within which his offence was committed, and shall be found within another Consular district, it shall be lawful for the Consul within whose district such party shall be found, to proceed against him in the same manner as if the offence had been committed within such last-mentioned district.

Consuls empowered, subject to appeal, to hear civil suits, in which British subjects are defendants, and Japanese, or subjects of other Powers, plaintiffs.

XI. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for the Consul of the district within which the party sued shall be found, to hear and determine any suit of a civil nature against a British subject, arising within any part of the dominions of the Tycoon of Japan, whether such suit be instituted by a subject of the Tycoon of Japan, or by a subject or citizen of a foreign State in amity with Her Majesty ; and if any party in such suit shall be dissatisfied with the decision given by such Consul, it shall be lawful for such party, within fifteen days after such decision, to give to the Consul notice of appeal to the Consul-General; whereupon the Consul shall, with as little delay as possible, transmit all the documents which were produced before him, and none other, together with a statement of the grounds on which he has formed his decision, to the Consul-General, and shall forthwith notify to the several parties the transmission thereof; and, saving the provision contained in Article XV of this Order, the Consul-General shall decide on such documents and on such statement, and shall communicate his decision to the Consul, who shall forthwith proceed to carry the same into execution, and against such decision of the Consul-General there shall be no appeal : Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Consul to require from any party appealing to the Consul-General reasonable security, which shall consist, in part, of one or two sufficient sureties to be approved by the Consul, that such party shall abide by the decision to be given by the said Consul-General.

Consuls empowered, subject to appeal, to hear civil suits in which British subjects are plaintiffs, and Japanese, or subjects of other Powers, defendants.

XII. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for the Consul of the district within which the party sued shall be found, in like manner to hear and determine any suit of a Civil nature arising within any part of the dominions of the Tycoon of Japan, instituted by a British subject against a subject of the Tycoon of Japan, or against a subject or citizen of a foreign State in amity with Her Majesty, provided the defendant in such suit shall consent to submit to his jurisdiction, and give sufficient security that he will abide by the decision of the Consul, or, in case of appeal, by that of the Consul-General, and will pay such expenses as the Consul or Consul-General shall adjudge ; and if any party in such suit shall be dissatisfied with the decision given by such Consul, it shall be lawful for such party, within fifteen days after such decision, to give to the Consul notice of appeal to the Consul-General, and the proceedings in every such suit, or in any appeal arising therefrom, shall be conformable to and under the same condition as the proceedings in a suit, or in an appeal arising therefrom, in which a British subject is defendant, and a subject of the Tycoon of Japan, or a subject or citizen of a foreign State in amity with Her Majesty, is plaintiff.

Consuls empowered, subject to appeal, to hear civil suits between British subjects.

XIII. And it is further ordered, that in the event of any suit of a Civil nature arising between British subjects within the dominions of the Tycoon of Japan, it shall be lawful, upon the application of any party to such suit, for the Consul of the district within which the party sued shall be found, to hear and determine such suit, subject to an appeal to the Consul-General, in any case where the sum in dispute shall not exceed one thousand dollars, and, where it shall exceed such sum, to the Supreme Court of the Colony of Hong Kong ; and every such appeal shall be made and conducted in the same manner and form, and under the same conditions, as in cases in which the defendant only is a British subject.

Assessors in civil suits.

XIV. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for any of Her Majesty's Consuls before whom any suit whatever of a Civil nature is brought for decision, to summon two, and not more than four, British subjects, of good repute, residing within his district, to sit with him as Assessors at the hearing of such suit, and in case the sum sought to be recovered shall exceed five hundred dollars, such suit shall not be heard by the Consul without Assessors, if within a reasonable time such Assessors can be procured; and the Assessors aforesaid shall have no authority to decide on the merits of such suit, but in the event of such Assessors, or any of them, dissenting from the decision of the Consul, the Consul shall enter the fact of such dissent, and the grounds thereof, in the minutes of the proceedings, and in case of appeal shall transmit the same to the Consul-General, together with the documents relating to the suit.

Enforcement of decisions in civil suits.

XV. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for the Consul to enforce his decision against a British subject in a Civil suit by distress or imprisonment, in like manner as a decision of the Supreme Court of the Colony of Hong Kong, in a Civil suit, is enforced within that Colony.

Evidence to be adduced on hearing of appeals.

XVI. And it is further ordered, that in an appeal to the Consul-General, or to the said Supreme Court, from the decision of a Consul, it shall not be open to any party to adduce any further evidence than that which had been laid before the Consul; and that a party shall not be required to appear personally to prosecute an appeal, or support a sentence: Provided always, that in all such appeals, it shall be lawful for a party to allege facts essential to the issue of the suit which have come to his knowledge subsequently to the decision of the Consul, and to produce evidence in support of such facts, and provided also that it shall, moreover, be lawful for the said Consul-General, or the said Supreme Court to admit any further legal evidence besides that adduced before the Consul, on its being established, to the satisfaction of the Consul-General or of the said Supreme Court, by oath or affidavit, that the party desiring to produce such further evidence was ignorant of the existence of such evidence, or was taken by surprise at the hearing before the Consul, or was unable to produce it before the Consul after due and reasonable diligence and exertion on his part in that behalf, or wheresoever, under the particular circumstances of the case, it shall appear to the said Consul-General, or the said Supreme Court, that further evidence ought to be received.

Examination of Witnesses.

XVII. And it is further ordered, that the Consul shall have power in a civil suit to examine on oath, or in such form and with such ceremonies as the witness may declare to be binding on his conscience, any witness who may appear before him, and shall have power, on the application of any party in such suit, to issue a compulsory order for the attendance of any person being a British subject, who may be competent to give evidence in such suit; and any British subject having been duly served with any such compulsory order, and with a reasonable notice of the day of the hearing of such suit, and upon his expenses of appearing as a witness having been paid or tendered to him by the party at whose application he shall have been ordered to attend, shall, on his wilful default to appear as a witness at the hearing of such suit, be punished with a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or with imprisonment for a period not exceeding thirty days, at the discretion of the said Consul; and every witness, being a British subject, so examined as aforesaid, in case of wilful false testimony, may, by the said Consul, be convicted of and punished for the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

Settlement of Suits by Agreement or Arbitration.

XVIII. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for the Consul to promote the settlement of a suit or contention by amicable agreement between the parties, and, with the consent of the several parties, to refer the decision of a suit or contention to one or more arbitrators, and to take security from the parties that they will be bound by the result of such; and the award of such arbitrator or arbitrators shall be, to all intents and purposes, deemed and taken to be a judgment or sentence of the Consul in such suit or contention, and shall be entered and recorded as such, and shall have the like effect and operation, and shall be enforced accordingly, and shall not be subject to any appeal.

Trial of Crimes committed by British Subjects.

XIX. And it is further ordered, that it shall be lawful for any of Her Majesty's Consuls to cause to be apprehended and brought before him any British subject who may be charged with having committed any crime or offence within the dominions of the Tycoon of Japan, or on board of any Japanese ship or vessel within the said dominions; and such Consul shall thereupon proceed, with all convenient speed, to enquire concerning the same, and for such purpose shall have power to examine on oath, or in such form and with such ceremonies as the witness shall declare to be binding on his conscience, any witness who may appear before him to subtantiate such charge; and shall have power to compel any person, being a British subject, who may be competent to give evidence as to the guilt or innocence of the party so charged, to appear and give evidence, and to punish the wilful default of any such person to appear and give evidence, after reasonable notice of the day of the hearing of such charge, by fine or imprisonment, in like manner as provided in Article XVII of this Order, and shall examine every such witness in the presence and hearing of the party accused, and afford the accused party all reasonable facility for cross-examining such witness, and shall cause the deposition of every such witness to be reduced to writing, and the same to be read over, and, if necessary, explained to the party accused, together with any other evidence that may have been given against him during the course of the inquiry; and shall require such accused party to defend himself against the charge brought against him, and, if necessary, advise him of the legal effect of any voluntary confession; and shall take, in like manner, the evidence of any witness whom the accused party may tender to be examined in his defence; and every witness, being a British subject, so examined as aforesaid, in case of wilful false testimony, may by the said Consul be convicted and punished for the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury; and when the case has been fully inquired into, and the innocence or guilt of the person accused established to the satisfaction of the Consul, the Consul, as the case may be, shall either discharge the party accused from custody if satisfied of his innocence, or proceed to pass sentence on him if satisfied of his guilt; and it shall be lawful for any Consul, having inquired into, tried, and determined, in the manner aforesaid, any charge which may be brought before him, to award to the party convicted any amount of punishment not exceeding imprisonment for one month, or a fine of two hundred dollars.

Assessors on the Trial of Crimes Committed by British Subjects.

XX. And it is further ordered, that if the crime or offence whereof any person, being a British subject, may be accused before any of Her Majesty's Consuls as aforesaid, shall appear to such Consul to be of such a nature as, if proved, would not be adequately punished by the infliction of such punishment as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such Consul to summon two, or not more than four, British subjects of good repute, residing within his district, to sit with him as Assessors for inquiring into, trying, and determining the charge against such person; and the Consul who shall try any such charge with the assistance of Assessors as aforesaid, shall, if he is himself convinced of the guilt of the party accused, have power to award any amount of punishment not exceeding imprisonment for twelve months, or a fine of one thousand dollars, and the Assessors aforesaid shall have no authority to decide on the innocence or guilt of the party accused, or on the amount of punishment to be awarded to him on conviction; but in the event of the said Assessors, or any of them, dissenting from the said conviction of, or from the amount of punishment awarded to, the accused party, the said Assessors or any of them shall be authorized to record in the Minutes of the proceedings the grounds on which the said Assessors or any of them may so dissent, and the Consul shall forthwith report to the Consul-General the fact that such dissent has been so recorded in the Minutes of the proceedings, and shall, as soon as possible, lay before the Consul-General copies of the whole of the depositions and proceedings, with the dissent of the Assessor or Assessors recorded therein; and it shall be lawful thereupon for the Consul-General, by warrant under his hand and seal, addressed to the Consul by whom the case was heard and determined, to confirm or vary, or remit altogether, as to the Consul-General may seem fit, the punishment awarded to the party accused, and such Consul shall give immediate effect to the injunction of any such warrant.

Consuls may award Deportations on Second Convictions.

XXI. And in order more effectually to repress crimes and offences on the part of British subjects within the dominions of the Tycoon of Japan, it is further ordered, that it shall and may be lawful for any of Her Majesty's Consuls to cause any British subject who shall have been twice convicted before him of any crime or offence, and punished for the same, and who, after execution of the sentence of the Consul on any second conviction, shall not be able to find good and sufficient security, to the satisfaction of the Consul, for his future good behaviour, to be sent out of the dominions of the Tycoon of Japan; and to this end any such Consul as aforesaid shall have power and authority, as soon as may be practicable after execution of the sentence on such second conviction, to send any such twice-convicted party out of the dominions of the Tycoon of Japan; if a native of the territories formerly administered by the East India Company to some port of the said territories; and if such party is not a native of such territories, to England; and, meanwhile, to detain him in custody until a suitable opportunity for sending him out of the said dominions shall occur: and any person so to be sent out of the said dominions as aforesaid shall be embarked in custody on board one of Her Majesty's vessels of war, or, if there should be no such vessel of war available for such purpose, then on board any British ship or vessel bound to any such port as aforesaid or to England; and it shall be lawful for the commander of any of Her Majesty's ships of war, or of any British ship or vessel bound to any such port as aforesaid, or to England, to receive any such person as aforesaid under a warrant from the Consul to him addressed, and thereupon to convey him in custody to any such port as aforesaid or to England, in the same manner as if he were a distressed British subject, unless he shall be willing and able himself to defray the expences of his passage.

Consuls may, in certain cases, award Deportation on First conviction.

XXII. And it is further ordered, that in any case in which any British subject shall be accused before any of Her Majesty's Consuls of the crime of arson, or housebreaking, or cutting or maiming, or stabbing or wounding, or of any assault endangering life, or of causing any bodily injury dangerous to life, the proceedings before the Consul shall be carried on with the aid of Assessors, convened in the manner aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for the Consul, if to him shall seem fit, to cause any person convicted before him of any of the crimes aforesaid, over and above any fine or imprisonment which may be awarded to such person, to be sent out of the dominions of the Tycoon of Japan, and any such port as aforesaid, or to England, in the manner pointed out in the next preceding Article of this Order, notwithstanding the crime laid to the charge of such person may be the first of which he has been convicted before the Consul.

Consuls may require British Subjects to give Security to keep the Peace.

XXIII. And it is further ordered that it shall be lawful for any of Her Majesty's Consuls, within the dominions of the Tycoon of Japan, upon information laid before him by one or more credible witnesses, upon oath, that there is reasonable ground to apprehend that any British subject is about to commit a breach of the public peace, to cause such British subject to be brought before him, and to require such British subject to give sufficient security to keep the peace ; and in the event of any such British subject being convicted of, and punished for, a breach of the peace, to cause such British subject, after he shall have undergone the punishment which may be awarded to him by the Consul, to find security for his future good behaviour ; and, in the event of any British subject who may be required, as aforesaid, to give security to keep the peace, or to find security for his good behaviour, being unable or wilfully omitting to do so, then, and in every such case, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consul to send such British subjects out of the dominions of the Tycoon of Japan, and to any such port as aforesaid, or to England, in the manner pointed out in Article XXI of this Order.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by a certain Warrant in writing, under their hands, duly made and bearing date, at Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the 15th day of March, 1854, in exercise of the power or authority in them for that purpose vested in and by the said recited Act, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, did direct that on every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight transmitted by the post between any place in the United Kingdom and (amongst other colonies) Gibraltar (direct or through any other colony or through any foreign country), there should be charged and taken, in lieu of any rates of British postage now payable by law on such letters, an uniform British rate of sixpence; and that on every letter transmitted as mentioned in the said now reciting Warrant, exceeding half an ounce in weight, there should be charged, taken, and paid progressive and additional rates of postage as therein mentioned.

And whereas other powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled

And whereas it is expedient that other regulations should be made for the transmission by the post of letters between the United Kingdom and Gibraltar in the manner hereinafter mentioned;

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us, in and by the said two hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this present Warrant, under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners (by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided), order and direct as follows (that is to say):—

1. On every letter not exceeding one quarter of an ounce in weight, transmitted by the post between any place in the United Kingdom and Gibraltar, viâ France and Spain, there shall be charged and taken, in lieu of any rates of postage now payable by law on such letters, an uniform rate of postage (British and foreign combined) of sixpence.

2. And on every letter so transmitted, exceeding one quarter of an ounce in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, progressive and additional rates of postage, as follows; that is to say:—

On every such letter exceeding one quarter of an ounce in weight, and not exceeding one half an ounce in weight, two rates of postage.

On every such letter exceeding one half of an ounce, and not exceeding three quarters of an ounce in weight, three rates of postage.

On every such letter exceeding three quarters of an ounce, and not exceeding one ounce in weight, four rates of postage.

And for every quarter of an ounce in weight above the weight of one ounce, there shall be charged and taken one additional rate of postage, and every fraction of a quarter of an ounce in weight, above the weight of one ounce, shall be charged as an additional quarter of an ounce in weight. And each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause, shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding one quarter of an ounce in weight.

3. Nothing hereinbefore contained shall in anywise prejudice or affect the privilege granted by the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, in favour of petitions and addresses forwarded to Her Majesty by the post, nor the privilege granted by the same Act to Members of each House of Parliament, to receive by the post petitions and addresses to Her Majesty, and petitions addressed to either House of Parliament, not exceeding thirty-two ounces in weight, nor the privilege granted to printed votes or proceedings of Parliament, nor shall anything in this Warrant contained in anywise prejudice or affect the privilege which seamen and soldiers employed in Her Majesty's service now by law enjoy, of sending and receiving by the post letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight, subject to the regulations and restrictions in respect of the same.

4. The several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had

5. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands duly made, at any time hereafter, alter or repeal any of the rates hereby altered, or any of the regulations hereby made, and make and establish any new or other rates and regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

TREASURY WARRANT.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

And whereas, by another Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post-office," further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and power is also given to the Postmaster-General (amongst other things) to collect and receive the foreign and colonial postage charged or chargeable on any letter sent by the post, and also with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to require the postage, British, colonial, or foreign, of any letter sent by the post to be prepaid, either in money or in stamps, as he might think fit, on the same being put into the Post-office.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury have, by divers Warrants under their hands, fixed, made, and established, certain rates of British postage payable on the transmission by the post of certain colonial letters therein respectively mentioned.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by a certain other Warrant under their hands, bearing date the fifteenth day of January, 1858, did make regulations for the prepayment of the several rates of postage payable on letters posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to any of the colonies therein mentioned, and on letters posted in any of such colonies, addressed to the United Kingdom.

And whereas it is expedient to extend the provisions of the said last-mentioned Warrant to letters posted in the United Kingdom addressed to the Cape of Good Hope, Sierra Leone, and the Gold Coast, and to letters posted in those colonies addressed to the United Kingdom.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this present Warrant, under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners (by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided), order and direct as follows; that is to say:

1. On every letter posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to the Cape of Good Hope, Sierra Leone, and the Gold Coast, and on every letter posted in any of such colonies, addressed to the United Kingdom, the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted.

2. If any letter shall be posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to the Cape of Good Hope, Sierra Leone, or the Gold Coast, without any postage having been paid thereon, every such letter shall be forwarded charged with the amount of the postage to which it would have been liable if the postage had been paid when posted, together with a further and additional rate of postage of sixpence.

3. If any letter shall be posted in the Cape of Good Hope, Sierra Leone, or the Gold Coast, addressed to the United Kingdom, without any postage having been paid thereon, every such letter shall be forwarded charged with the amount of the postage to which it would have been liable if the postage had been paid when posted, together with a further and additional rate of postage of sixpence.

4. If any letter shall be posted in the United Kingdom addressed to the Cape of Good Hope, Sierra Leone, or the Gold Coast, or be posted in any of such colonies, addressed to the United Kingdom, and the postage paid thereon shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such letter would be liable under or by virtue of the regulations in force relating thereto, every such letter shall be forwarded charged with the amount of the difference between the postage paid thereon and the postage to which it would have been liable if the postage had been paid when posted, together with a further and additional rate of postage of sixpence.

5. Nothing hereinbefore contained shall in anywise prejudice or affect the privilege granted by the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty in favour of petitions and addresses forwarded to Her Majesty by the post, nor the privilege granted by the same Act to members of each House of Parliament to receive by the post petitions and addresses to Her Majesty and petitions addressed to either House of Parliament, not exceeding thirty-two ounces in weight, nor the privilege granted to printed votes or proceedings of Parliament, nor shall anything in this Warrant contained in anywise prejudice or affect the privilege which seamen and soldiers employed in Her Majesty's service now by law enjoy of sending and receiving by the post letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight, subject to the regulations and restrictions in respect of the same.

6. The several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

7. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands duly made, at any time hereafter alter, repeal, or revoke any of the orders, directions, or regulations hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other orders, directions, or regulations in lieu thereof.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage, or inland postage, payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage, according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant, as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

And whereas by an Act passed in eleventh year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post-office," further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury; and power is also given to the Postmaster-General (amongst other things), to collect and receive the foreign and colonial postage, charged or chargeable on any letters sent by the post, and also with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to require the postage, British, colonial, or foreign, of any letters sent by the post, to be prepaid either in money or in stamps, as he might think fit, on the same being put into the post-office, and also, with such consent, to abolish or restrict the prepayment in money of postage on letters sent by the post, either altogether or on certain letters; and to require the prepayment thereof to be in stamps, and also to refuse to receive or send by the post, any letters tendered contrary to any regulations thereby made; and power is also given to the Postmaster-

General, and any officer of the Post-office, to detain any letters which should be posted or sent by the post contrary to the regulations therein mentioned, and to open such letters, and either to return them to the senders thereof, or to forward them to the places of their destination, charged in either case with such rates of postage as the Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, should from time to time direct.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury have, by divers Warrants under their hands, fixed, made, and established certain rates of British postage, payable on the transmission by the post of certain letters therein respectively mentioned, and it is expedient to make regulations for the prepayment of the several rates of postage payable on the letters hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said hereinbefore recited Acts, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this present Warrant under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners (by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided), order and direct as follows ; that is to say :

1. On every letter posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to any part of Egypt, and transmitted by the post from any place in the United Kingdom to Egypt by British packet-boat, the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted.

2. If any letter shall be posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Alexandria, Cairo, or Suez, without any postage having been paid thereon, every such letter shall be forwarded charged with the amount of the postage to which it would have been liable if the postage had been paid when posted, together with a further and additional rate of postage of sixpence.

3. If any letter shall be posted in the United Kingdom addressed to Alexandria, Cairo, or Suez, and the postage paid thereon shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such letter would be liable under or by virtue of the regulations in force relating thereto, every such letter shall be forwarded charged with the amount of the difference between the postage paid thereon and the postage to which it would have been liable if the postage had been paid when posted, together with a further and additional rate of postage of sixpence.

5. Nothing hereinbefore contained shall in anywise prejudice or affect the privilege granted by the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty in favour of petitions and addresses forwarded to Her Majesty by the post, nor the privilege granted by the same Act to members of each House of Parliament, to receive by the post petitions and addresses to Her Majesty, and petitions addressed to either House of Parliament not exceeding thirty-two ounces in weight, nor the privilege granted to printed votes or proceedings of parliament; nor shall anything in this Warrant contained in anywise prejudice or affect the privilege which seamen and soldiers employed in Her Majesty's service now by law enjoy of sending and receiving by the post letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight, subject to the regulations and restrictions in respect of the same.

6. The term "by the post" used in this Warrant, shall include the conveyance through France, the sea conveyance in the Mediterranean being by British packet-boat, and the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

7. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands, duly made at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, or revoke any of the orders, directions, or regulations, hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other orders, directions, or regulations in lieu thereof.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by Warrant, under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and to make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament, passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the post-office."

And whereas certain powers are also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament, passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the stamp duties on newspapers, and to provide for the transmission by post of printed periodical publications."

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by a certain Warrant, in writing (under the hands of two of them the said Commissioners, by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided), bearing date at Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, the 16th day of February, 1859, did amongst other things order and direct, by the 4th clause thereof, that every British newspaper posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Australia, might be transmitted by the post to Australia by packet-boat, viâ Southampton and Egypt, at a rate of two pence each, and by the 8th clause thereof, that if any newspaper should be posted in the United Kingdom for transmission, viâ Southampton and Egypt, addressed to Australia, having thereon or affixed thereto a postage stamp or stamps, the value of which should be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such newspaper would be liable under that Warrant, but equal in amount to the sum of one penny, every such newspaper should be forwarded, charged with the amount of the difference between the value of such stamp or stamps so being thereon or affixed thereto, and the postage to which such newspaper would be liable as aforesaid, together with a further and additional rate of postage of one penny.

And whereas it is expedient that so much of the said recited Warrant as imposes upon every British newspaper, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Australia, and transmitted by packet-boat, viâ Southampton and Egypt, a rate of two pence, and that so much of the said recited Warrant as imposes upon every such newspaper, an additional charge and rate of postage of one penny, as hereinbefore mentioned and recited, should be repealed, and that such newspapers should be transmitted by the post, at the reduced rate of one penny each, as hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers vested in us in and by the said several before recited Acts of Parliament, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant (under the hands of two of us, the said Commisioners, by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided), order and direct as follows :

1. So much of the said 4th clause of the said recited Warrant of the 16th day of February, 1859, as directs that every British newspaper posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Australia, may be transmitted by the post to Australia by packet-boat, viâ Southampton and Egypt, at a rate of two pence each. And so much of the said 8th clause of the said recited Warrant as directs that if any newspaper shall be posted in the United Kingdom for transmission, viâ Southampton and Egypt, addressed to Australia, having thereon, or affixed thereto, a postage stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such newspaper would be liable under the said recited Warrant, but equal in amount to the sum of one penny, every such newspaper shall be forwarded charged with the amount of the difference between the value of such stamp or stamps so being thereon, or affixed thereto, and the postage to which such newspaper would be liable as aforesaid, together with a further and additional rate of postage of one penny, shall be, and the same is, and are, hereby repealed, revoked, and annulled, and the said rate of two pence, and also the said further and additional rate of postage of one penny, so far as they respectively relate to British newspapers transmitted to Australia as aforesaid, shall wholly cease and determine, anything in the said recited Warrant of the 16th day of February, 1859, contained to the contrary, notwithstanding.

2. Every British newspaper posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Australia, may be transmitted by the post to Australia by packet-boat, viâ Southampton and Egypt, at a rate of one penny each.

3. Every newspaper transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be so transmitted in conformity with and under and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions contained in the said recited Warrant of the 16th day of February, 1859, except so far as the said regulations, orders, directions, and conditions shall be altered or repealed by the provisions of this present Warrant.

their hands duly made, at any time hereafter alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed, or any of the orders, directions, regulations, or conditions hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates, orders, directions, regulations, or conditions in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

borne arms against the Mutineers, both at Lucknow and elsewhere, during the late operations in India, shall be considered as eligible to receive the decoration of the Victoria Cross, subject to the rules and ordinances already made and ordained for the government thereof, provided that it be established in any case that the person was serving under the orders of a General or other Officer in Command of Troops in the Field, when he performed the Act of Bravery for which it is proposed to confer the decoration;—Her Majesty has accordingly been pleased to signify Her intention to confer this high distinction on the undermentioned Gentleman, whose claim to the same has been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, on account of an Act of Bravery performed by him in India, as recorded against his name; viz.:

Mr. William Fraser M'Donell, of the Bengal Civil Service, Magistrate of Sarun.—For great coolness and bravery on the 30th of July, 1857, during the retreat of the British Troops from Arrah, in having climbed, under an incessant fire, outside the Boat in which he and several Soldiers were, up to the rudder, and with considerable difficulty cut through the lashing which secured it to the side of the boat. On the lashing being cut, the boat obeyed the helm, and thus thirty-five European Soldiers escaped certain death. Date of Act of Bravery, 30th July, 1857.

Her Majesty has also been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the decoration of the Victoria Cross on the undermentioned Officers and Private Soldier, whose claims to the same have been submitted for Her Majesty's ap-

Private Denis Dempsey (No. 2134). — For having, at Lucknow, on the 14th March, 1858, carried a Powder Bag through a burning village, with great coolness and gallantry, for the purpose of mining a passage in rear of the enemy's position. This he did, exposed to a very heavy fire from the enemy behind loopholed walls, and to an almost still greater danger from the sparks which flew in every direction from the blazing houses. Also, for having been the first man who entered the

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of FEBRUARY 28, 1860.

Downing-Street, February 27, 1860.

THE Queen has been pleased to direct the following Letters Patent to be passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, for investing the Supreme Court of Hong Kong with appellate jurisdiction in cases of civil suits between British subjects heard and determined under the authority of Her Majesty's Order in Council of 3rd of March, 1859, by British Consuls within the dominions of the Emperor of Japan.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c., to all to whom these presents shall come, greeting:

Whereas, by an Ordinance passed by the Legislative Council of Hong Kong, in the year 1845, intituled No. 6 of 1845, "An Ordinance to Repeal Ordinance No. 15 of 1844, for the establishment of a Supreme Court of Judicature at Hong Kong, and to substitute other provisions in lieu thereof," it was enacted that there should be within the said colony a Court which should be called the Supreme Court of Hong Kong.

And whereas, by an Order in Council, bearing date the 3rd day of March, 1859, it was ordered that, in the event of any suit of a civil nature, arising between British subjects within the dominions of the Tycoon of Japan, it should be lawful, upon the application of any party to such suit, for the Consul of the district within which the party sued should be found, to hear and determine such suit, subject to an appeal to the Supreme Court of the Colony of Hong Kong; and that every such appeal should be made and conducted in the manner and form, and under the same conditions as were prescribed by the said Order in Council in case the defendant only were a British subject. And whereas, by the 28th article of the aforesaid Order in Council, it was further ordered, that the Supreme Court of the Colony of Hong Kong should have, and might exercise concurrently with Her Majesty's Consul, authority and jurisdiction in regard to all suits of a civil nature between British subjects arising within any parts of the dominions of the Emperor of Japan; provided always, that the said Supreme Court should not be bound, unless in a fit case it should deem it right so to do by writ of certiorari or otherwise, to debar or prohibit the Consul from hearing and determining, pursuant to the provisions of the several articles of the said Order, any suit of a civil nature between British subjects, or to stay the proceedings of a Consul in any such matter.

Now know ye, that we, upon consideration of the premises, and of our certain knowledge and mere motion, have thought fit to direct and ordain, and do direct and ordain as follows; that is to say:

1. If any party to any such suit as aforesaid, heard and determined in Japan, shall be dissatisfied with the decision given upon the said suit by the Consul before whom the same shall be tried, it shall be lawful for such party, within fifteen days after such decision, to give to the Consul notice of appeal to the Supreme Court of Hong Kong, whereupon the Consul shall, with as little delay as possible, stamp with his Consular Seal, and transmit all the documents which were produced before him, and none other, and also the notes taken by him of the evidence of the said suit, together with a statement of the grounds on which he formed his decision, to the said Supreme Court, and an exact copy of the order made by him, and shall forthwith notify to the several parties the transmission thereof. Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Consul to require from any party appealing to the said Court, reasonable security, which shall consist in part of one or two sufficient sureties to be approved by the Consul, that such party shall and will abide by the decision to be given by the said Supreme Court, and pay all such costs of and incidental to such appeal, as the said Supreme Court shall direct.

2. And we do further direct and appoint that it shall be competent to the said Supreme Court, and the said Court is hereby required to take into consideration such documents and statements, and decide upon the same, and to communicate its decision to the Consul, who shall forthwith proceed to carry the same into execution.

3. And we do further direct and appoint that in any appeal to the said Court from the decision of a Consul, it shall not be open to any party to adduce any further evidence than that which was laid before the Consul, and that a party shall not be required to appear personally to prosecute an appeal or support a sentence. Provided always, that in all appeals from the decision of a Consul, it shall be lawful for a party to allege facts material to the issue in the cause which have come to his knowledge subsequently to the decision of the Consul, and to produce evidence in support of such facts, and provided also that it shall moreover be lawful for the said Court to admit any further legal evidence besides that adduced before the Consul, on its being established to the satisfaction of the said Court by oath on personal examination, or by affidavit, that the party desiring to produce such further evidence was ignorant of the existence of such evidence, or was taken by surprise at the hearing before the Consul, or was unable to produce it before the Consul, after due and reasonable diligence and exertion on his part in that behalf, or where, under the particular circumstances of the case, it shall appear to the said Court that further evidence ought to be received.

4. And we do hereby give and grant to the said Supreme Court full jurisdiction, power and authority, to hear and determine all such causes, suits, matters, and things, as are mentioned and comprised in the said 28th Article of the aforesaid Order in Council, of the third day of March, 1859.

5. And we do further direct and appoint that it shall be lawful for the said Court to make such rules, orders, and regulations, not being inconsistent with the provisions of the said Order in Council, or with the laws in force in Hong Kong, as may in the judgment of the said Court be requisite for the speedy and effectual decision of the aforesaid appeals, and also of the said causes, suits, matters, and things. Provided always, that all such rules, orders and regulations, shall forthwith be communicated to the Governor of Hong Kong, and by him shall be transmitted to us, our heirs and successors, under the seal of the said Court, for our or their approbation or

TREASURY WARRANT.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed, and were made chargeable and payable upon, for, and in respect of letters, newspapers, Parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post, and by the same Act powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, and at any time thereafter, by Warrant under their hands to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any of such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which might be payable were to be paid, and the power thereby given to alter and fix rates of postage was extended to any increase, or reduction, or remission of postage.

And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the eighth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for the better regulation of colonial posts," power is also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of colonial postage payable by law for the transmission of letters by the post, and to subject the same to rates of postage, according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and the rates of colonial postage from time to time to become payable, under or by virtue of any such Warrant are to be charged and paid accordingly, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which might be payable are to be paid, and the power thereby given to alter and fix rates of postage was extended to any increase, or reduction, or remission of postage, and it was declared that the term "letter" should include post letters and packets, newspapers, votes, and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, and votes and proceedings of the legislatures of any of Her Majesty's colonies or provinces, pamphlets, and other printed papers.

And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post Office," the provision fixing the maximum weight of letters to be sent by the post in the first-mentioned Act was repealed, and in order to prevent packets of an unwieldy bulk or inconvenient size being transmitted by the post, power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury at any time or times thereafter, by Warrant under their hands, to fix the maximum weight of letters to be sent by post, and from time to time to repeal or revoke such maximum weight wholly or in part, and declare any other maximum of weight in lieu thereof. And it is provided that all letters should be forwarded, conveyed, and delivered by the post in conformity with any such Warrant, and also in conformity with and under and subject to all such orders, conditions, limitations, regulations, and restrictions, as to the form, size, or dimensions thereof, whether in proportion to the weight or otherwise, as the Postmaster-General with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury should from time to time direct. And by the said Act power is also given to the Postmaster-General to collect and receive the foreign and colonial postage charged or chargeable on any letters sent by the post, and also with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to require the postage, British, colonial, or foreign, of any letters sent by the post to be pre-paid either in money or in stamps, as he might think fit, on the same being put into the post-office, and also with such consent to abolish or restrict the pre-payment in money of postage on letters sent by the post either altogether or on certain letters, and to require the pre-payment thereof to be in stamps, and also to refuse to receive or send by the post any letters tendered contrary to any regulations thereby made. And it is also declared that in all cases in which the British postage chargeable on any letters sent by the post should exceed the sum of one penny, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury might by Warrant under their hands reduce such postage to any other rate of postage they might from time to time think fit. And that also the Postmaster-General might, if he should think fit, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, allow any printed words, writing, or marks, in addition to the direction, to be put on any printed newspapers or other printed papers sent by the post, or on the covers thereof, and that any such newspapers or other printed papers, should from thenceforth be forwarded either free of postage, or subject to such rates of postage as the Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, should from time to time direct. And it is also declared that the Postmaster-General and any officer of the post-office, might detain any letters which should be posted or sent by the post, contrary to the regulations of that Act, or the first mentioned Act, or contrary to any regulations made under the authority of that Act, or of the first-mentioned Act, or contrary to the regulations of any Treasury Warrant, to be issued under or by virtue of that Act, or which had been or should be issued under or by virtue of the first-mentioned Act, and open such letters, and either return them to the senders thereof, or forward them to the places of their destination, charged in either case with such rates of postage as the Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, should from time to time direct. And it is also declared that the term "letter," as also the term "letters," used in the said now reciting Act, should be construed according to the interpretation of the term "letter," contained in the said recited Act, passed in the eighth year of the reign of Her Majesty.

And whereas it is expedient to make regulations by which packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, may be transmited by the post, between any two of Her Majesty's colonies, through the United Kingdom, and to fix certain rates of postage and scales of weight, at which such packets may be so transmitted in the manner hereinafter mentioned and contained.

Now We, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us, in and by the said several before-mentioned Acts, or any or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners (by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided), order, direct, and declare, as follows :

1. All packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature, or art, whether British, Colonial, or Foreign, and all packets, consisting of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament or the Colonial Legislatures, may be transmitted by the post between any two of Her Majesty's colonies through the United Kingdom ; and all such respective packets shall be so transmitted respectively in conformity with and under and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinafter mentioned and contained; and the single rate of postage for the transmission thereof shall be as follows, that is to say, for every such packet so transmitted, not exceeding four ounces in weight, if such packet, in the course of such transmission thereof as aforesaid shall not pass through or across the Isthmus of Suez, there shall be charged, taken, and paid for such transmission thereof as aforesaid an uniform single rate of postage of sixpence, and for every such packet so transmitted, not exceeding four ounces in weight if such packet, in the course of such transmission thereof as aforesaid shall pass through or across the Isthmus of Suez there shall be charged, taken, and paid for such transmission thereof as last aforesaid an uniform single rate of postage of sevenpence.

2. All such packets so respectively transmitted as aforesaid, if exceeding four ounces in weight, shall be subject to the several further and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned according to the scale of weight hereinafter contained; that is to say:

On every such packet so transmitted respectively as aforesaid, if exceeding four ounces in weight and not exceeding one half of a pound in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid two rates of postage.

And on every such packet so transmitted respectively as aforesaid if exceeding one half of a pound and not exceeding one pound in weight, four rates of postage.

And on every such packet so transmitted respectively as aforesaid, if exceeding one pound and not exceeding one pound and one half of another pound in weight, six rates of postage.

And on every such packet so transmitted respectively as aforesaid, if exceeding one pound and one-half of another pound and not exceeding two pounds in weight, eight rates of postage.

And for every additional half of a pound in weight of any such packet so transmitted respectively, as aforesaid, above the weight of two pounds, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, two additional rates of postage, and every fractional part of such additional half of a pound in weight shall be charged as an additional half of a pound in weight. And each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding four ounces in weight.

No such packet, which in length, or breadth, or width, shall exceed the dimensions of two feet shall be forwarded by the post under the provisions aforesaid.

No such packet, posted in any other of Her Majesty's colonies, addressed to the East Indies or New South Wales, or posted in the East Indies or New South Wales, addressed to any other of Her Majesty's colonies, exceeding the weight of three pounds, shall be forwarded by the post under the provisions aforesaid.

The terms "books, publications, or works of literature or art," in this Warrant used, shall, for the purposes of this Warrant, mean and comprise all such articles as in their general character are either literary, or consist of printed, written, engraved, or lithographed matter (although not strictly literary), including books (whether printed, written, or plain), publications, or compilations (whether in print or in manuscript), almanacks, printed or lithographed letters, and such artistic productions as prints, maps (whether on paper, or canvas, or cloth, and and whether printed or written) and photographs, when not on glass or in frames containing glass, and any description of paper, parchment, or vellum (whether printed, lithographed, written upon, or plain, or any mixture of the four), together with any binding, mounting, or covering of, or upon, or belonging to any such article or production, or any portion thereof, or of or belonging to any paper, parchment, or vellum, and including also any cases or rollers of prints or maps, book markers (whether of paper or otherwise), pencils, pens, or other thing usually appertaining to any such article or production, paper, parchment, or vellum, or necessary for its safe transmission which shall be sent in the same packet with any such article or production to which they or it shall belong. And all letters, notices, and other communications (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed or partly lithographed, and partly written, which if wholly written would not be considered letters or communications in the nature of letters, shall and may be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant. But any letter, notice, or other communication (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed, or partly lithographed and partly written, which if wholly written would be considered a letter, or a communication in the nature of a letter, shall not be entitled to the privilege of being transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant. Provided, nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall extend to authorize the sending by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, of any patterns, or books of patterns, or papers of patterns of any article or thing whatsoever.

Every packet transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant shall be sent open at the ends or sides, and either without a cover or in a cover or envelope open at the ends or sides, and there shall be no written letter, either closed or open, nor any written communication in the nature of a letter either closed or open (whether such letter or communication be addressed to, or intended for, the person to whom the packet shall be directed, or any other person), nor any inclosure, sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any other enclosure not authorized by this Warrant, sent in or with any such packet, nor shall there be any written letter, or any written communication in the nature of a letter, in or upon any such packet, or on the cover or envelope thereof.

Upon every packet transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted, either in money or by the proper colonial postage stamp or stamps being affixed thereto.

3. In order to prevent any obstacles to the due and regular transmission of letters by the post, any officer of the Post-office may delay the transmission of any packet posted or forwarded by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, either for the space of twenty-four hours after the time at which the same ought to be despatched in due course of the post, or (at his option) until the despatch of the mail next after that by which the same ought in due course of the post to be forwarded by him.

4. Nothing hereinbefore contained shall be construed to extend to interfere with, or in anywise to affect any privileges relating to the transmission by the post of printed newspapers, or any printed publications, which are allowed to pass by the post under the newspaper privilege; nevertheless any printed newspapers which are not authorized to be transmitted by the post under such privileges, may be transmitted by the post at the rates of postage and under the regulations contained in this Warrant.

5. Every letter, notice, or other communication, (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed, or partly lithographed, and partly written, which if wholly written would be considered a letter or a communication in the nature of a letter sent by the post, shall be deemed and considered to be a letter or a communication in the nature of a letter, and shall be charged and chargeable with postage as a letter, and shall be transmitted by the post in conformity with and under and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions relating to letters posted and addressed in like manner.

6. If any question shall arise whether any such letter, notice, or other communication as is last hereinbefore mentioned, is entitled to the privilege of a printed paper so far as respects the transmission thereof by the post, or of being sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, or is chargeable as a letter, the same shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final.

7. If any packet sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, posted in any other of Her Majesty colonies, addressed to the East Indies or New South Wales, or posted in the East Indies or New South Wales, addressed to any other of Her Majesty's colonies, shall exceed the weight of three pounds, or if any packet sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall in length or breadth, or width, exceed the dimensions of two feet, or if any packet, or the cover, or envelope of any packet, sent or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall not be open at the ends or sides, or if there shall be any written letter, or any written communication in the nature of a letter, in or upon any such packet, or on the cover or envelope thereof, (whether such letter or communication be addressed to or intended for the person to whom the packet shall be directed, or any other person), every such respective packet shall and may be detained and opened, and at the option of the Postmaster-General shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be given up to the person to whom it shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination; and every such packet on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall be chargeable with the like amount of postage to which it would have been liable as a letter if the postage had been paid when posted, and such postage may be either paid by the sender or be charged to the person to whom such packet shall be forwarded.

8. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall contain any written letter, or any written communication in the nature of a letter, whether closed or open, or any inclosure, sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or any other inclosure not authorized by this Warrant, every such letter, or communication, or inclosure, may be taken out by any officer of the Post Office, and either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or forwarded to the address on the packet, charged in either case, not only with the full rates of postage as an unpaid letter, but also with a further and additional rate of postage equal in amount to the single rate of postage chargeable under the provisions of this Warrant on a packet not exceeding four ounces in weight; and the remainder of the packet, if the postage be duly paid when posted, may be forwarded to the place of its address without any extra charge.

9. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be posted, and the postage paid thereon, or postage stamps affixed thereto, at the time of the same being posted, shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet would be liable under and by virtue of the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinbefore contained, but equal in amount to the single rate of postage which would be chargeable under this Warrant if such packet did not exceed four ounces in weight, every such packet shall be forwarded, charged with the amount of the difference between the postage so paid thereon, or postage stamps affixed thereto, and the postage to which such packet would be liable as aforesaid; together

11. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to any packet sent through France or any other foreign country, to which a transit rate of postage would be payable thereon.

12. The Postmaster-General shall and may have and exercise, the option of sending any packets hereby authorized to be sent by the post, under the provisions aforesaid, either by packet-boat or private ship, at the same rate of postage as by packet-boat, when and as he shall think fit.

13. FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of MARCH 6, 1860.

CHAPTER of the Most Ancient and Most Noble Order of the Thistle.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, March 2, 1860.

A CHAPTER of the Most Ancient and Most Noble Order of the Thistle having been summoned for this day, the following Knights Brethren, in their Mantles and Collars, assembled in the Green Drawing-room; viz.:

The Duke of Roxburghe, the Earl of Mansfield, the Earl of Elgin and Kincardine, Lord Panmure, and the Marquess of Ailsa, attended by the undermentioned Officers in their Mantles, and wearing their Chains and Badges; viz.: Sir John Stewart Richardson, Baronet, Secretary of the Order, and Frederic-Peel Round, Esq., Gentleman Usher of the Green Rod.

At three o'clock the Knights Brethren were called over by the Secretary, when (Her Majesty and His Royal Highness the Prince Consort having passed into the Chapter-room,) they proceeded, with the Officers of the Order, into the presence of the Sovereign.

The Queen being seated in Her Chair of State, and His Royal Highness the Prince Consort at the table on the right hand of Her Majesty, the Sovereign was pleased to command the other Knights Brethren to take their seats at the table, according to their seniority in the Order, the Officers of the Order standing at the bottom of the table.

The Sovereign was then pleased to signify Her Royal Pleasure touching the election of a Knight into the Order; whereupon the Knights Brethren proceeded to the election, and the suffrages having been collected by the Secretary (commencing with the Junior Knight), were by him, kneeling, presented to the Sovereign, who was pleased to declare that the Right Honourable James, Earl of Fife, had been duly elected a Knight of the Most Ancient and Most Noble Order of the Thistle.

Then, by command of the Sovereign, the Earl of Fife was received at the door of the Chapter-room by Lord Panmure and the Marquess of Ailsa, the two Junior Knights Brethren present, and conducted between them to Her Majesty, preceded by the Secretary (bearing the Ensigns of the Order upon a velvet cushion), and by the Gentleman Usher of the Green Rod.

The Sword of State being thereupon delivered to The Sovereign, the Earl of Fife kneeling near The Queen, was knighted therewith; after which his Lordship had the honour to kiss Her Majesty's hand; the Earl of Fife rising, the Oath was administered to his Lordship by the Secretary.

The Earl of Fife, then again kneeling, and the Secretary on his knee, presenting to Her Majesty the Riband and Jewel of the Order, The Queen, assisted by His Royal Highness The Prince Consort, the Senior Knight, was graciously pleased to place the same over his Lordship's left shoulder.

His Lordship having again kissed the Sovereign's hand, and after receiving the congratulations of the Knights Brethren, retired.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of MARCH 16, 1860.

India Office, March 13, 1860.

THE Secretary of State for India has received the following Minute of the Governor-General of

Digitized by Google

India, in continuation of that published in the London Gazette of the 7th October, 1859.

Minute by his Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General of India on the Services of Civil Officers and others during the Mutiny and Rebellion.

1. I PROCEED to complete the minute of the 2nd of July last, which was in some respects imperfect.

2. First, as regards Oude.

In every part of Oude, except within the walls of the Lucknow Residency, the Civil Officers of the Government were killed at their posts, or escaped by concealment and flight, under the most trying difficulties.

The Civil Government was overwhelmed and swept away, and, for the ten months following the outbreak of the mutiny, the history of the Civil Officers of the province is comprised in the accounts of the siege, relief, and recovery of the seat of the local Government in Lucknow, which have already been submitted to Her Majesty's Government.

But there are some of the officers of Sir Henry Lawrence's Government who still survive to bear testimony to the great qualities of their noble chief, and who have also had a share in the recovery of the province, and in re-establishing the administration. And there are those whose services in the province began with the relief of the garrison, or the recovery of the city.

3. Mr. Martin Gubbins held the post of Financial Commissioner of Oude until the office was abolished on the reorganisation of the local Government. During a great part of the siege he had charge of the Intelligence Department, and his energy in the construction and superintenence of defensive works, and in other respects, were very praiseworthy, and call for the notice of Her Majesty's Government.

4. Mr. G. Couper held the office of Secretary to the Chief Commissioner of Oude. Sir J. Inglis bears grateful testimony to the value of the aid which he received from this able and zealous officer in military as well as civil matters. Mr. Couper's services were very remarkable, and I strongly recommend him to the favourable consideration of Her Majesty's Government.

I also beg that the services rendered by Mr. W. Forbes, Deputy Commissioner, whose good service, almost single-handed, on the south-eastern border of Oude, was conspicuous; and by Major J. W. Carnegie, Deputy Commissioner; may be favourably considered.

5. The services of the following officers should, I submit, receive the notice of Her Majesty's Government:—Major Hutchinson, who, after taking an important part in the military operations, was of signal service as a civil officer and military secretary to the Chief Commissioner; Mr. S. Martin, Deputy Commissioner; Captain Reid, Deputy Commissioner; Mr. C. Denison, on temporary service in Oude; Captain H. Evans, Deputy Commissioner; Captain A. P. Orr, Deputy Commissioner; Mr. G. H. Lawrence, Deputy Commissioner; Mr. W. C. Capper, Deputy Commissioner, whose conduct in the garrison of the residency has been commended by Sir J. Inglis; Mr. Balmain, Deputy Commissioner; Lieutenant E. Chamier, Assistant Commissioner; Mr. Kavanagh, Assistant Commissioner, whose courage at a most critical time of the siege has already won for him high reward; Mr. R. Moss King, Assistant Commissioner; Captain Thurburn, attached to General Walpole's column, and since employed in Lucknow ; and Captain Bunbury, formerly of the Intelligence Department, and afterwards in command of a police battalion.

6. The valuable services of Major H. Bruce, Chief of the Police, have been recognised by Her Majesty's Government. The officers of his corps have done their duty admirably : Captain Chamberlain, Captain Boileau, and Captain Dawson have much distinguished themselves.

7. Major L. Barrow has also received acknowledgment for his good services; but, in addition to those which were rendered in the field, he has the credit of having discharged with great judgment the task of making settlements with the landholders.

8. Of gentlemen not in the regular service of the Government, Mr. Schilling and Mr. Crank, of the Martiniere College, Mr. McCrae, Civil Engineer, and Mr. Cameron deserve that their valuable exertions during the siege, to which General Inglis has already borne testimony, should not be passed over, although the service was military rather than civil. To these should be added Mr. F. Lincoln, Superintendent of the Judicial Commissioner's office.

9. But it was to the Chief Commissioner of Oude, Sir Robert Montgomery, that, from the time when the reorganisation of the province began, the praise of directing and steadily advancing the work, with scarcely a single check, mainly belonged. I cannot too warmly express my thanks for the service which he rendered to the State, in the ten months during which the Chief Commissionership was in his hands.

10. I have next to refer to Nagpore, a full report from this province being now before me.

The task which fell to the Civil Officers and others of the Local Government in Nagpore was, for the most part, one of prevention and repression, rather than a struggle against open rebellion; but it was most judiciously, as well as promptly and vigorously performed, and to this is due that, not even in the wild and remote parts of that province, were those fearful tragedies enacted, of which other provinces have been the scenes. Services which secured this result are eminently deserving of praise.

11. The officers of the Nagpore Commission, whom I recommend to the favourable consideration of Her Majesty's Government, are—Mr. R. S. Ellis, Deputy Commissioner and Superintendent of Police, Captain C. Elliot, Deputy Commissioner, and Captain Crichton, Deputy Commissioner.

The responsibilities which fell upon these officers in their respective districts (Nagpore, Raepore, and Chanda) were very heavy, and were sustained with great courage and complete success.

12. I also ask the favourable notice of Her Majesty's Government for Major Snow, Deputy Commissioner; Lieutenant C. B. Lucie Smith, Assistant Commissioner; Mr. A. B. Ross, Assistant Commissioner; Lieutenant Cumberlege, Personal Assistant to the Commissioner; Captain Rybot, Executive Engineer, and Mr. Peter, of the Telegraph Department.

13. Mr. G. Plowden, the head of the Nagpore Commission, has the high credit of having been ready at all times to contribute, from the small force at his disposal, to the defence of his fellow-countrymen beyond his own province. The cheerfulness with which Mr. Plowden not only complied with, but anticipated, the requests from neighbouring provinces for aid, well merits the notice of Her Majesty's Government.

14. There remain a few, whose names should have had place in my former minute, but who, owing to the transfer of their services from one local government to another, the death of the officers from whom the reports should have been received, and other incidental causes, were not included in it.

15. Those for whom I now have to ask the notice of Her Majesty's Government are Mr. C. B. Saunders, at first Magistrate of Moradabad, and afterwards the very efficient Commissioner of Delhi ; Mr. George Campbell, since transferred to the Judicial Commissionership of Oude ; Mr. W. Ford, Magistrate of Goorgaon ; Mr. J. W. Sherer, Magistrate of Cawnpore, and attached as Civil Officer to General Havelock's column ; Mr. J. D. Inglis, Magistrate of Bareilly ; Mr. C. Richardes, Joint Magistrate of Paniput ; Mr. John Campbell, Joint Magistrate of Moradabad ; Mr. James Power, Assistant Magistrate of Mynpoorie ; Mr. F. B. Outram, Assistant Magistrate of Allygurh ; Dr. Stewart Clark, who had charge also of the construction and supply of carriages for the troops, and, in spite of surrounding difficulties, never failed to meet every demand upon him ; Captain W. McNeile, Deputy Commissioner of Thanesur ; and Mr. H. Harington, of the Telegraph Department.

16. For Major W. H. Greathed, of the Bengal Engineers, employed by the Civil Government, during the first months of the mutiny, upon most perilous duty, between Agra and Delhi, which he performed with excellent judgment and courage, I request the favourable consideration of Her Majesty's Government.

17. In Bengal, I have only to add for notice the name of Mr. Edward Lushington, who, as Commissioner of Mambhoom and Singhbhoom, did good service, with small support, in the wild tracts of the South-Western frontier.

18. Lastly, I ask that the services of Mr. H. B. Riddell, Director-General of the Post Office in all India, may be noticed. The appliances of his department were, under his superintendence, turned to most valuable account, in the conveyance of troops and stores, from the very beginning of the Mutiny, and mainly by his own energy and activity.

19. I now close this list, which is the supplement and conclusion of that of the 2nd of July. I might have extended them greatly, without inserting the name of a single man whose duties did not, in the time of which I have spoken, rise far beyond their ordinary scope; and who had not proved himself more than equal to them. But, where the field and the numbers engaged in it are so large, it is not possible to include all to whom honour is due. As it is, I am painfully sensible of the inadequacy of written words to convey a true estimate of all that has been done, and endured, by those whom I have named.

None but those, whose duty it was to watch, day after day, the throbbings of the vast continent in its convulsion, can thoroughly conceive the extent, and character, and variety, of the great services rendered by the officers of the Civil Government of India, and by those who aided them. There are some who impetuously struck down rebellion when it first raised its head within the sphere of their action; there are some who, threatened by it all around, day and night, steadily repelled it at every point, and held their ground; there are others, whose business it became to cheer and discipline mistrustful communities into useful loyalty; there are others who, as the representatives of their Government in Native States, and standing almost alone amongst armed fanatics, excited by daily rumours of disaster to the British power, worthily sustained, and, by their bearing, compelled respect to, the dignity and authority of their country; and there are those (and they are not the least) who, to England's eternal honour, and with a wise perception of her true interests, knew when to exhibit mercy in its most godlike form—mercy extended in the hour of triumph and asserted power—to those who had deeply offended.

I cannot attempt to do justice to the part which has been borne by each individual whom I have mentioned. The records in full are before Her Majesty's Government; and I can but place these lists in the hands of the Secretary of State, with the assurance that there is not in them the name of a single man of whom his country may not be proud, or of any whom I cannot conscientiously and earnestly recommend as worthy of the favour or notice of the Crown.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty in Council was this day pleased, on a representation of the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council on Education, to appoint William Jack, Esq., B.A., of Saint Peter's College, Cambridge, and John Kerr, Esq., B.A.. of Trinity College, in the same University, to be two of Her Majesty's Assistant-Inspectors of Schools in Scotland.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 26th day of March, 1860.

PRESENT:

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas Her Majesty was graciously pleased by Her Royal Proclamation, bearing date the thirtieth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, to promise and declare that the Bounties of Ten Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Five Pounds for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for Her Majesty's Service, should be paid, in the manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the age of forty-five, nor under the age of twenty years, who should, on or before the fifteenth day of June then following, enter themselves to serve in Her Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of Her Majesty's Ships, or Officers employed in Tenders, or at Rendezvous on Shore for raising men for the service of the Royal Navy: and whereas Her Majesty was also graciously pleased by Her said Proclamation to declare that all Ablebodied Landsmen, not above the age of twenty-five, nor under the age of twenty years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the sum of Forty Shillings each man as Her Majesty's Royal Bounty:

And whereas the time limited for Payment of the said Bounties, so far as they relate to Able Seamen and Ordinary Seamen, was, by Order in Council of the eleventh day of June last, prolonged and extended from the said fifteenth day of June to the thirty-first day of July last; and whereas by certain other Orders in Council, the said Bounties to Able and Ordinary Seamen were reduced to Eight Pounds and Four Pounds, to Six Pounds and Three Pounds, and lastly to Four Pounds and Two Pounds, respectively; and the time limited for the payment of the said last-named Bounties was, on the twenty-third day of January last, prolonged and extended from the first day of February last to the thirty-first day of March instant; and it being judged expedient for Her Majesty's Service that such Bounties should, so far as they relate to Able Seamen and Ordinary Seamen, be continued to be paid for some time longer; Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered that the time limited for payment of the said Bounties of Four Pounds to Able Seamen, and of Two Pounds to Ordinary Seamen, be prolonged and extended from the first day of April next to the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, inclusive; Whereof all persons concerned are to take notice, and govern themselves accordingly. Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 26th day of March, 1860.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council was pleased to order that the time for the discontinuance of burials in the undermentioned churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed, as follows; viz.:

In the present churchyard of the parish of ALSTON, Cumberland, from the first of April to the first of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty; in St. Bartholomew's Churchyard, in the Independent Chapelyard, in the Inghamite Burial-ground, and in the Wesleyan and Baptist Burial-grounds, all in COLNE, in the parish of Whalley, from the first of April to the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty; in the churchyard of KINGTON, Herefordshire, from the first of April to the first of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty; in the churchyard of MELBOURNE, Derbyshire, and in the Friends' Burial-ground, in the New Jerusalem Chapel Burial-ground, and in the Baptist Chapel Burial-ground, in the same parish, from the first of March to the first of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty; in the churchyard of All Saints, POPLAR, from the first of May next, to the first of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, provided the burials therein be conducted in accordance with the 7th, 8th, and 9th Official Regulations for burial-grounds; that in all cases there shall be a covering of four feet and six inches of earth above the coffin, measuring from the general surface of the ground; and that with the exception of now existing family vaults and graves, which shall only be used for the interment of persons whose relations are already buried therein, no earth that has been already buried in shall be reopened.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the seventh day of this instant March, burials were directed to be discontinued, with certain exceptions, in the Roman Catholic Cemetery at FAILSWORTH, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that instead of limiting the burials in the said cemetery to those of Roman Catholics dying within the townships of Failsworth and Newton Heath only, there be permitted also burials of Roman Catholics dying within the townships of Moston, Harpurley, and Blackley, and of members of the families of those persons who now possess family graves therein, on condition that the Regulations for New Burial Grounds be observed.

The Secretary to the Government of India with the Governor-General, to the Military Secretary to the Government of the Punjab.

Camp, Daviepoora,

SIR, February 10, 1860.

HAVING submitted to his Excellency the Governor-General your letter, No. 9, dated the 6th instant, forwarding a detailed report of the operations against the Wuzeerees by Brigadier-General Chamberlain, C.B., I am directed to state that his Excellency entirely concurs with the Honourable the Lieutenant-Governor in the cordial approbation expressed by his Honour of the service rendered by Brigadier-General Chamberlain, and in his appreciation of the valuable results of that service.

The Governor-General directs me to request that the Lieutenant-Governor will have the goodness to convey to Brigadier-General Chamberlain his best thanks for the promptitude and success with which these important operations have been conducted. On the 15th of December last, the force commanded by that officer marched from Kohat; and, on the 14th of January, it returned to that station, having, in the short period of one month, exacted reparation from the Kabyl Khail Wuzeerees for the support and shelter given by them to the murderers of the late Captain Mecham, and having, while effecting that object, exhibited to the tribes of the districts through which he marched, not only the power of the Government to reach and punish those amongst them who are guilty of offence, but its careful forbearance towards all others.

I am directed to request that the Governor-General's thanks may be particularly conveyed to all the officers* mentioned by Brigadier-General Chamberlain, and generally to the force which was under his command.

The Governor-General attaches great value to the survey of the districts through which General Chamberlain marched.

The conduct of Captain James, Commissioner of Peshawur, and of Captain Henderson, Deputy Commissioner of Kohat, in co-operation with Brigadier-General Chamberlain, will be duly acknowledged by the Governor-General in the Foreign Department.

I have, &c.

TREASURY WARRANT.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty for the regulation of the duties of postage certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed and were made chargeable and payable upon, for, and in respect of letters, newspapers, Parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post. And by the said Act power was given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury (amongst other things) from time to time by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time by Warrant as aforesaid to alter or repeal any of such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time by Warrant as aforesaid to appoint at what time the rates which might be payable were to be paid.

And whereas the provision fixing the maximum weight of letters to be sent by the post in the said before recited Act was repealed, and further powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury in that behalf by another Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post-office.

And whereas it is expedient that regulations should be made for the transmission by the post of packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature and art, and other printed papers, between the United Kingdom and Gothenburgh, in the kingdom of Sweden, in the manner hereinafter mentioned and contained.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers vested in us in and by the said two before-mentioned Acts, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners (by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided) order, direct, and declare as follows:

1. All packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether British, colonial, or foreign, and all packets consisting of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Gothenburgh, or posted at Gothenburgh addressed to the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and Gothenburgh (the sea conveyance being by British or foreign packet-boat direct). And all such respective packets shall be transmitted in conformity with and under and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions, hereinafter mentioned and contained; and the single rate of postage for the transmission of such packets shall be the sum of three pence. And all such respective packets so transmitted and chargeable with postage as aforesaid shall be subject to the several progressive and additional rates of postage hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

On every such packet if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid for the transmission thereof, respectively as aforesaid, the uniform single rate of postage of three pence.

And on every such packet exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid progressive and additional rates of postage as follows (that is to say):

On every such packet, if exceeding four ounces in weight and not exceeding eight ounces in weight, two rates of postage.

And on every such packet, if exceeding eight ounces and not exceeding one pound in weight, four rates of postage.

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound and not exceeding one pound and one-half of another pound in weight, six rates of postage.

And for every additional half of a pound in weight of any such packet above the weight of one pound and one half of another pound in weight there shall be charged, taken, and paid two additional rates of postage; and every fractional part of such additional half of a pound in weight shall be charged as an additional half of a pound in weight. And each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant if not exceeding four ounces in weight.

No such packet which in length, or breadth, or width shall exceed the dimensions of two feet, shall be forwarded by the post under the provisions of this Warrant.

The terms "books, publications, or works of literature, or art," in this Warrant used, shall for the purposes of this Warrant, mean and comprise all such articles as in their general character are either literary, or consist of printed, writen, engraved or lithographed matter (although not strictly literary), including books (whether printed, written or plain); publications or compilations (whether in print or in manuscript); almanacks, printed or lithographed; letters and such artistic productions, as prints, maps (whether on paper or canvas, or cloth, and whether printed or written); and photographs, when not on glass or in frames containing glass; and any description of paper, parchment, or vellum (whether printed, lithographed, written upon, or plain, or any mixture of the four); together with any binding, mounting, or covering of or upon or belonging to any such article or production, or any portion thereof, or of or belonging to any paper, parchment, or vellum; and including also any cases or rollers of prints or maps, book markers (whether of paper or otherwise); pencils, pens, or other things usually appertaining to any such article or production, paper, parchment, or vellum, or necessary for its safe transmission, which shall be sent in the same packet with any such article or production to which they or it shall belong. And all letters, notices, and other communications, whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum, partly printed, or partly lithographed and partly written, which, if wholly written, would not be considered letters or communications in the nature of letters, may be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant; but any letter, notice, or other communication (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed or partly lithographed and partly written, which, if wholly written, would be considered a letter or a communication in the nature of a letter, shall not be entitled to the privilege of being transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant: provided that nothing herein contained shall extend to authorize the sending by the post under the provisions of this Warrant of any patterns, or books of patterns, or papers of patterns, of any article or thing whatsoever, unless such patterns shall consist merely of paper.

Every packet transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant shall be sent open at the ends or sides, and either without a cover or in a cover or envelope open at the ends or sides.

No packet transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant shall contain any written letter, either closed or open, nor any written communication in the nature of a letter, either closed or open (whether such letter or communication be addressed to, or intended for the person to whom the packet shall be directed or any other person), nor any enclosure sealed, or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any other enclosure not authorized by this Warrant, sent in or with any such packet, nor shall there be any written letter, or written communication in the nature of a letter, in or upon any such packet, or on the cover or envelope thereof.

Every packet transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant, and posted in the United Kingdom, shall be put into the Post-office at such hours in the day, and under all all such regulations as the Postmaster-General may appoint.

Upon every packet transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant, which shall be posted in the United Kingdom, the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of posting the same.

2. Every letter, notice, or other communication (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed, or partly lithographed, and partly written, which if wholly written would be considered a letter, or a communication in the nature of a letter, sent by the post, shall be deemed and considered to be a letter and shall be chargeable with postage as a letter.

3. If any question shall arise whether any such letter, notice, or other communication as last hereinbefore mentioned is entitled to the privilege of a printed paper, so far as respects the transmission thereof by the post, or of being sent by the post under the authority of this Warrant, the same shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final.

4. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post, under the authority of this Warrant, shall in length, or breadth, or width, exceed the dimensions of two feet, or if any such packet, or the cover or envelope thereof, shall not be open at the ends or sides, or if any such packet shall be sent, otherwise than in conformity with the terms, conditions, and regulations hereinbefore contained, every such packet shall and may be detained and opened, and at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, and every such packet on being so returned or given up shall, at the option of the Postmaster-General, be either free of postage, or be charged with any rate of postage he may think fit, not exceeding the postage to which it would have been liable as a letter.

5. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post, under the authority of this Warrant from the United Kingdom to Gothenburgh (any such packet posted in London, and sent from any department or office, in or connected with the public service of Her Majesty, which shall keep a postage account with the General Post Office in London, and the postage thereof being charged in such account, only excepted), shall be posted in the United Kingdom, without any postage being paid thereon, or with a postage paid thereon less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet shall be liable under and by virtue of the regulations hereinbefore contained, every such packet shall be detained and opened, and at the option of the Postmaster-General shall be dealt with and chargeable in like manner as is hereinbefore directed with respect to any packet not open at the ends or sides, or which may exceed in length, or breadth, or width, the dimensions of two feet.

6. All packets transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and rates of postage respectively contained in a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, under the hands of two of the said Commissioners, bearing date the 19th day of February, 1855, relating to redirected rates of postage upon packets which shall be redirected and again forwarded by the post.

7. The rates of postage chargeable on packets transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant, shall be in lieu of any rates of British postage now chargeable by law thereon.

8. The several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty.

9. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by Warrant under their hands duly made, at any time hereafter alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed or altered, or any of the orders, directions, regulations, or conditions hereby made. and may make and establish any new or other rates, orders, directions, regulations, or conditions in lieu thereof, and from time to time may appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.

10. This Warrant shall come into operation on the second day of April, 1860.

postage, certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed and made chargeable and payable upon, for, and in respect of letters, newspapers, parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers, transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post; and by the same Act powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, and at any time thereafter, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any of such altered rates and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which might be payable were to be paid, and the power thereby given to alter and fix rates of postage was extended to any increase or reduction or remission of postage.

And whereas the provision fixing the maximum weight of letters to be sent by the post in the said before-mentioned Act was repealed, and further powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury in that behalf by another Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 85, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post-office.

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majes-

And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in further exercise of the powers reserved to them in and by the said several hereinbefore recited Acts of Parliament, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf by two other several Warrants in writing, under the hands respectively of two of them the said Commissioners (by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided), and bearing date respectively at Whitehall, Treasury Chambers, one of the said last mentioned two Warrants on the 19th day of June, 1858, and the other of the said last mentioned two Warrants on the 1st day of July, 1859, and respectively reciting the said hereinbefore recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857, did make and declare certain other regulations, orders, directions, and conditions respecting certain of the said packets in and by the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857, mentioned and authorized to be transmitted by the post, which said last mentioned regulations, orders, directions, and conditions respectively are also hereinafter mentioned.

And whereas it is expedient to extend the privilege of transmitting by the post packets of a like kind, between the colonies of Nova Scotia, Bermuda, and Newfoundland, and between any two of the said colonies, without passing through the United Kingdom, in conformity with, and under and subject to the same regulations, orders, directions, and conditions as are mentioned and contained in the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857, so far as the same respectively are applicable to packets transmitted between the several colonies and places mentioned in the said schedule B, to the said recited Warrant annexed, with such provisions, nevertheless, as are contained respectively in the said two recited Warrants of the 19th day of June, 1858, and the 1st day of July, 1859, in the manner, and at the rates of postage hereinafter mentioned and contained.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us, in and by the said several herein-before recited Acts of Parliament, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this present Warrant, under the hands of two of

5. If any question shall arise whether any such letter, notice, or other communication as is last hereinbefore mentioned, is entitled to the privilege of a printed paper so far as respects the transmission thereof by the post, or of being sent by the post under or by virtue of this present Warrant, or is chargeable as a letter, the same shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final.

6. In all cases where any packet may be transmitted by the post under the authority of this present Warrant, and any such packet shall be so transmitted as not to be transmitted in conformity with, and under, and subject to the regulations, orders, directions, and conditions in this present Warrant, or in the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857, mentioned and contained or referred to, relating thereto, and shall by reason thereof have become liable under or by virtue of this present Warrant, or of the said recited Warrant of the 21st day of July, 1857, to be charged with the like rate or amount of postage to which it would have been liable as a letter if the postage had been paid when posted, or with any higher rate or amount of postage the Postmaster-General shall, and he is hereby authorized and empowered at his discretion, either to charge any such packet

TREASURY WARRANT.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, for the regulation of the duties of postage certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed and were made chargeable and payable upon, for, and in respect of letters, newspapers, Parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers, transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post.

Digitized by Google

And by the said Act power was given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury (amongst other things) from time to time by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage payable by law on the transmission by the post, of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any of such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which might be payable were to be paid.

And whereas, the provision, fixing the maximum weight of letters to be sent by the post in the said before-recited Act was repealed, and further powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury in that behalf by another Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereof, and for other purposes relating to the Post-office.

And whereas it is expedient that regulations should be made for the transmissions by the post of packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature and art, and other printed papers between the United Kingdom and Bremen in the manner hereinafter mentioned and contained.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers vested in us in and by the said two before-recited Acts of Parliament, or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us the said Commissioners (by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided) order, direct, and declare, as follows:

1. All packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether British, colonial, or foreign, and all packets consisting of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament respectively posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Bremen or posted at Bremen, addressed to the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and Bremen (the sea conveyance being by private ship); and all such respective packets shall be so transmitted in conformity with and under and subject to the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinafter mentioned and contained; and the single rate of postage (British and foreign) for the transmission of such packets shall be the sum of three pence. And all such respective packets, so transmitted and chargeable with postage as aforesaid, shall be subject to the several progressive and additional rates of postage hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

On every such packet, if not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, for the transmission thereof respectively as aforesaid, the uniform single rate of postage (British and Foreign) of three pence.

And on every such packet exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, progressive and additional rates of postage, as follows (that is to say):—

On every such packet, if exceeding four ounces in weight, and not exceeding eight ounces in weight, two rates of postage.

And on every such packet, if exceeding eight ounces, and not exceeding one pound in weight, four rates of postage.

And on every such packet, if exceeding one pound, and not exceeding one pound and one half of another pound in weight, six rates of postage.

And for every additional half of a pound in weight, of any such packet above the weight of one pound and one half of another pound in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, two additional rates of postage; and every fractional part of such additional half of a pound in weight, shall be charged as an additional half of a pound in weight. And each progressive and additional rate, chargeable under this clause, shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding four ounces in weight.

No such packet, which in length or breadth, or width, shall exceed the dimensions of two feet, shall be forwarded by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant.

The terms "books, publications, or works of literature or art," in this Warrant used, shall, for the purposes of this Warrant, mean and comprise all such articles, as in their general character are either literary, or consist of printed, written, engraved, or lithographed matter (although not strictly literary), including books (whether printed, written, or plain), publications or compilations (whether in print or in manuscript), almanacks, printed or lithographed letters, and such artistic productions as prints, maps (whether on paper or canvass, or cloth, and whether printed or written), and photographs, when not on glass, or in frames containing glass, and any description of paper, parchment, or vellum (whether printed, lithographed, written upon, or plain, or any mixture of the four), together with any binding, mounting, or covering, of, or upon, or belonging to any such article or production, or any portion thereof, or of, or belonging to, any paper, parchment, or vellum, and including also any cases or rollers of prints or maps, book markers (whether of paper or otherwise), pencils, pens, or other things usually appertaining to any such article or production, paper, parchment, or vellum, or necessary for its safe transmission, which shall be sent in the same packet with any such article or production, to which they or it shall belong. And all letters, notices, and other communications, whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum, partly printed or partly lithographed, and partly written, which, if wholly written, would not be considered letters, or communications in the nature of letters, may be transmitted by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant; but any letter, notice, or other communication (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed or partly lithographed, and partly written, which, if wholly written, would be considered a letter, or a communication in the nature of a letter, shall not be entitled to the privilege of being transmitted by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant; provided that nothing herein contained, shall extend to authorize the sending by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, of any patterns, or books of patterns, or papers of patterns, of any article or thing whatsoever, unless such patterns shall consist merely of paper.

Every packet transmitted by the post, under the authority of this Warrant, shall be sent open at the ends or sides, and either without a cover or in a cover, or envelope open at the ends or sides.

No packet transmitted by the post, under the authority of this Warrant, shall contain any written letter, either closed or open, nor any written communication in the nature of a letter, either closed or open (whether such letter or communication be addressed to, or intended for, the person to whom the packet shall be directed, or any other person), nor any enclosure, sealed, or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any other inclosure not authorized by this Warrant, sent in or with any such packet, nor shall there be any written letter, or written communication in the nature of a letter, in or upon any such packet, or on the cover or envelope thereof.

Every packet transmitted by the post, under the authority of this Warrant, and posted in the United Kingdom, shall be put into the Post-office, at such hours in the day, and under all such regulations, as the Postmaster-General may appoint.

Upon every packet transmitted by the post, under the authority of this Warrant, which shall be posted in the United Kingdom, the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of posting the same.

2. Every letter, notice, or other communication (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed or partly lithographed, and partly written, which if wholly written, would be considered a letter, or a communication in the nature of a letter, sent by the post, shall be deemed and considered to be a letter, and shall be chargeable with postage as a letter.

3. If any question shall arise, whether any such letter, notice, or other communication, as last hereinbefore mentioned, is entitled to the privilege of a printed paper, so far as respects the transmission thereof, by the post, or of being sent by the post, under the authority of this Warrant, the same shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final.

4. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post under the authority of this Warrant, shall in length, or breadth, or width, exceed the dimensions of two feet, or if any such packet, or the cover or envelope thereof, shall not be open at the ends or sides; or if any such packet shall be sent otherwise than in conformity with the terms, conditions, and regulations hereinbefore contained, every such packet shall and may be detained and opened and returned or given up to the sender thereof, and every such packet, on being so returned or given up, shall, at the option of the Postmaster-General, be either returned or given up free of postage, or shall be charged with any rate of postage the Postmaster-General may think fit, not exceeding the postage to which it would have been liable as a letter.

5. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post under the authority of this Warrant from the United Kingdom to Bremen (any such packet posted in London and sent from any department or office in, or connected with, the public service of Her Majesty, which shall keep a postage account with the General Post-office in London, and the postage thereof being charged in such account only excepted) shall be posted in the United Kingdom without any postage being paid thereon, or with a postage paid thereon less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet shall be liable, under and by virtue of the regulations hereinbefore contained, every such packet shall be detained and opened, and shall be dealt with and chargeable at the option of the Postmaster-General in like manner as is hereinbefore directed with respect to any packet sent or tendered or delivered in order to be sent by the post, which shall, in length, or breadth, or width, exceed the dimensions of two feet, or which shall not be open at the ends or sides.

6. All packets transmittted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and rates of postage, respectively contained in a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, under the hands of two of the said Commissioners, bearing date the 19th day of February, 1855, relating to redirected rates of postage upon packets which shall be redirected and again forwarded by the post.

7. The rates of postage chargeable on packets transmitted by the post, under the authority of this Warrant, shall be in lieu of any rates of postage now chargeable by law thereon.

8. The term "weight" used in this Warrant shall mean British weight, and the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty.

9. The Commissioners for the time being of

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of MAY 18, 1860.

India Office, May 17, 1860.

THE Secretary of State for India in Council has received the following papers:—

No. 1.

GENERAL ORDER BY HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF INDIA.

Camp, Hooshiarpore, March 28, 1860.

HIS Excellency the Governor-General of India gladly embraces the opportunity afforded by the return of Her Majesty's 53rd Regiment to England, to place on record the sense entertained by the Government of the services rendered in this Presidency by this excellent regiment.

The 53rd Regiment arrived in India in December, 1844, and proceeded to the North-Western Provinces.

It was present in the campaign of the Sutledge, and engaged in the battle of Aliwal, in January, 1846, and at the battle of Sobraon, on the 10th of February, 1846, which closed that campaign. It took part also in the campaign of the Punjab, and was present in the battle of Goojerat.

After several years of service in the Upper Provinces and in the Punjab, in the course of which, while at Peshawur in 1851 and 1852, the Regiment was frequently engaged in successful expeditions against the border tribes, the 53rd Foot proceeded to the Presidency, and it was in garrison in Fort William in the early part of the memorable year 1857, when the late mutinies broke out in the Native Army of Bengal.

The Governor-General willingly bears testimony to the importance of the service rendered at that time by the Regiment at the Presidency.

The 53rd Foot proceeded to the North-Western Provinces while the general disturbances were at their height; and at the brilliant affair at Khujiva on the 1st of November, 1857, where about two companies were engaged successfully, in concert with the "Shannon's" Naval Brigade, against a very superior body of Rebels and Mutineers, the Regiment lost its gallant and lamented Commander, Lieutenant-Colonel Powell, C.B.

Of this action it was appropriately remarked, in the despatch of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, "This fight affords one more "instance of what the British Soldier will perform "in spite of every disadvantage and extraordinary "fatigue. This was a soldiers' fight, if ever there "was one."

With the detachment of the 53rd, on this occasion, it will be remembered that a Company of the 93rd Highlanders, a small party of the Royal Engineers, and a depôt detachment, likewise fought, the whole winning for themselves the admiration and gratitude of their fellow countrymen.

The 53rd Regiment served at the memorable relief of the garrison of Lucknow, achieved by His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, in November, 1857; and, after having been present at the relief of Cawnpore, and at the action on the Kalanuddee, both directed by His Excellency in person; at the actions at Futtehgurh and at Shumsabad, and the storming of Meeangunge; the Regiment was engaged in the capture of Lucknow, by the Commander-in-Chief, in April, 1858.

Digitized by Google

Lastly, the Regiment was employed in the taking of Sultanpore, and the passage of the Goomtee, under Major-General Sir Hope Grant, K.C.B., and in the final subjugation of Oude.

The field services of the 53rd Foot, however, have not been more conspicuous than its discipline and good conduct throughout the period of its employment in India.

The Governor-General takes his leave of this fine Regiment with a very hearty farewell.

R J. H. BIRCH, Major-General, Secretary to the Government of India, with the Governor-General.

No. 2.

GENERAL ORDER BY HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF INDIA.

Camp, Deenanuggur, March 17, 1860.

THE 1st Battalion of Her Majesty's 60th Royal Rifles is about to embark at the presidency to return to England.

His Excellency the Governor-General cannot allow this very distinguished regiment to leave the country, without publicly acknowledging its services in India.

In October, 1845, the 1st Battalion 60th Royal Rifles landed at Bombay from England.

Towards the close of 1848 it formed part of the column of troops from the Presidency of Bombay, which co-operated with the army of Bengal in the campaign of the Punjab. The battalion was engaged in the siege of Mooltan, and in the capture of that fortress in January, 1849; at the battle of Goojerat in February of the same year; and in the brilliant pursuit of the fugitive hosts of Sikhs and Affghans, which terminated in the establishment of the British power at Peshawur.

While at Peshawur for a considerable period, the battalion distinguished itself in several operations against the border tribes.

In 1857, soon after the breaking out of the late mutinies, the battalion was engaged in the important action on the Hindoun; and, having joined the army before Delhi, its services were pre-eminent in the memorable siege and capture of that stronghold of the rebel forces.

The battalion subsequently formed part of the retrieving column under Colonel Sir John Jones, which, marking its progress by successive victories over the rebels and mutineers, proceeded into Rohilcund, and assisted in taking the city of Bareilly.

Subsequently the battalion participated in the final operations in Oude, directed and carried to a completely successful conclusion by the Right Honourable the Commander-in-Chief.

But it is not more by the valour of its officers and men, conspicuous as that has been on every occasion, than by the discipline and excellent conduct of all ranks, during the whole of their service in India, that this regiment has distinguished itself. The Governor-General tenders to the battalion his warmest acknowledgments for the high example it has set in every respect to the troops with which it has been associated, in quarters as well as in the field; and he assures its officers and men that the estimation in which their services are held by the Government of India, confirms to the full the respect and admiration with which they are universally regarded.

In bidding farewell to the battalion, the Governor-General desires that it will accept his best wishes for the welfare of every officer and man belonging to it.

(No. 5425.)

The Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy of the following Notification issued by the Hanoverian Government with regard to the regulations to be observed by Hanoverian Vessels in order to avoid collisions at sea.

(Translation.)

NOTIFICATION

of the Minister of Finance and Commerce regarding the prevention of collision between vessels at sea.

Hanover, 1*st April*, 1860.

In conformity with other regulations already existing for the marine generally, we hereby issue the following rules to avoid possible collisions between vessels, and to be observed by all Hanoverian Captains of vessels when navigating the open sea, or bays and rivers connected with it, in so far as these rules are not at variance with some other special rules established in some localities where the vessels are found.

1. When two vessels approach one another in different directions so that if they continue on their respective courses they might risk a collision, both vessels are bound to put their helms to port that they may pass on the port side of each other.

This rule applies to steamers of all kinds as also to sailing vessels whether they are sailing on the port or starboard tack and whether close-hauled or not, unless the circumstances of the case are such as to render a departure from the rule necessary in order to avoid immediate danger, and provided that as regards sailing ships on the starboard tack close-hauled due regard is had to keeping such ships under command.

2. In a narrow channel, every steamer is bound as far as practicable, to keep on that side of the fair-way or mid-channel which lies on her starboard side.

3. When two steamers approach each other from opposite directions at a spot so narrow as that they cannot possibly pass without risk of collision, that vessel which has to steer through the strait in a course that lies between east by south to west (including east and west) must keep herself outside the strait, or go back to make room for the other to pass, and, if on a river, that vessel which steams against the current is bound to observe the same rule to make room for the other to pass.

Every steamer is in fact bound to keep outside the strait, when she sees another coming from an opposite direction, and not able to pass her with safety.

4. In a thick fog as also in a narrow stream filled with vessels, every vessel must according to circumstances diminish her speed.

5. For the violation of these rules the captain is liable to a fine not exceeding fifty thalers.

ROYAL DECREE.

On the 27th of December, 1859, my minister, accredited at the Court of Great Britain, signed at London a declaration, for the mutual arrest and delivery of seamen deserters from merchant vessels of Spain and of the United Kingdom, and of which the following is a literal copy :

" The undersigned Minister Plenipotentiary of Her Catholic Majesty, has been instructed to make the following declaration,—

" The Consuls-General, Consuls, and Vice-Consuls of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, residing in Spain and her possessions, have the power to arrest and send, either on board their ships or to their respective countries, the individuals of the crew of British merchant vessels who shall have deserted from such vessels ; assistance is therefore to be rendered to that effect by all competent local authorities, after it has been proved by the rolls of registration, or any other authentic document, that the individuals thus reclaimed formed a part of such a crew."

After the production of such evidence, the surrender can no longer be denied, and all possible aid and power is therefore to be rendered to the British Consuls and Vice-Consuls for the discovery of such deserters.

Should any such deserter have besides committed some crime on land, his delivery may then be deferred by the local authorities, until he has stood his trial before the competent tribunal, and undergone the sentence pronounced against him. But this declaration does not apply to such seamen as are Spanish subjects, and have not been naturalized abroad.

The Spanish Government promises to give to this Declaration the force of an international law.

LONDON GAZETTE of JUNE 1, 1860.

Whitehall, May 31, 1860.

THE following Addresses of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, having been transmitted by Robert Montgomery, Lord Belhaven, Her Majesty's Commissioner, to the Right Honourable Sir George Cornewall Lewis, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been by him presented to The Queen; which Addresses Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, now met in General Assembly, have received with all loyal respect your Majesty's most gracious letter.

Assembled, in accordance with ancient usage, to take counsel regarding the affairs of our Church, we rejoice to know that our meeting has the sincere and cordial approbation of your Majesty, and we receive with peculiar pleasure the renewed assurance of the affectionate regard which your Majesty bears towards the Established Church of Scotland.

In entering upon the important duties entrusted to us, we are encouraged by the experience of your Majesty's unreserved confidence, and we humbly trust that, by the grace of God strengthening us, the zeal, prudence, and loyalty which have marked former Assemblies, may be so evinced in our present meeting, as to commend its proceedings also to your Royal approval.

It is our earnest desire and prayer that our deliberations may be guided by the spirit of wisdom and charity, so that they may tend, by the blessing of God, to the advancement of His glory and to the promotion of the best interests of the people committed to our charge.

We recognise a pledge of your Majesty's affectionate regard to the Church of Scotland, in the appointment of Lord Belhaven as your Majesty's High Commissioner, whose ability, courtesy, and tried attachment to our National Church have, in former years, received frequent acknowledgement at our hands.

We accept with heartfelt gratitude the gift of Two thousand pounds which your Majesty has been again pleased to place at our disposal for the reformation of the Highlands and Islands; and we shall give our best endeavours to apply it faithfully in accordance with your Majesty's desire.

That the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the King of Kings, and Lord of Lords, in whose favour is life, may plentifully enrich your Majesty with the bounties of His providence, and with the especial gifts of His grace, that he may enable your Majesty to reign long and prosperously over a free, loyal, and devoted people, and that He may hereafter bestow upon your Majesty a crown of unfading glory in the Heavens, is the sincere prayer of,

May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, most loyal, and most obedient subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, met in this General Assembly.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met in General Assembly, beg leave to approach your Majesty on this the anniversary of the day of your Majesty's birth, with the expression of our fervent congratulations.

We gratefully acknowledge the deep cause we have for thanksgiving to Almighty God, that we enjoy the inestimable privilege of living under the sway of a Sovereign who upholds with honour the high position to which, in His providence, your Majesty has been called; and affords a bright example of domestic virtue, and of unwearied performance of public duty.

With cordial satisfaction we beg leave to assure your Majesty of the loyalty and attachment to your Majesty's person and government, of the people of that portion of your dominions with which we are connected.

That Almighty God may long preserve your Majesty's life as a blessing to the British nation, that He may pour down the choicest of His gifts on your Majesty and on your Royal Consort, and that hereafter He may grant you the inheritance of His saints in the Kingdom of Glory, is the prayer of,

May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of JUNE 15, 1860.

India Office, June 12, 1860.

THE Secretary of State for India in Council has received the following General Order, published by his Excellency the Governor-General of India:—

Camp, Roopur, April 6, 1860.

HIS Excellency the Governor-General considers it due to Her Majesty's 8th (the King's) Regiment of Foot, to take leave publicly of the regiment on its departure to England, and to offer to its officers and men, the acknowledgements of the Government of India, for their services in this country.

The 8th Regiment embarked for India in April, 1846, and, after serving for some years in the Presidency of Bombay, was transferred to the Bengal Presidency in December, 1853.

The regiment was at Jullundur in 1857, when the Mutiny of the Bengal Army broke out, and did essential service at that station in resisting and punishing the mutineers.

It joined the Army before Delhi soon afterwards, and served with much distinction in the siege and capture of that fortress. It bore a conspicuous part in the complete repulse given to the forces of the mutineers in their persevering sorties, on the 14th, 18th, and 23rd of July, 1857; and, in the glorious struggle within the city, which lasted for six days after it was stormed in September, the 8th Regiment was amongst the foremost in exhibiting the irresistible effect of the valour and endurance of British soldiers.

The regiment formed part of the pursuing column under Brigadier Greathed, C.B., and was present in the actions at Boolundshuhur, Allygurh, and Agra.

It subsequently served with the force under his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, in the relief of the garrison of Lucknow, and at Cawnpore; and was subsequently employed in the final conquest of the province of Oude, and exhibited its characteristic bravery in the capture of the town and fort of Sandee.

The Governor-General begs to assure the 8th Regiment, of the very high sense entertained by him of its services and soldierly conduct, whether in quarters or in the field, and of the interest which he will always feel in its future welfare.

TREASURY WARRANT.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," certain scales of weight and rates of postage were fixed and were made chargeable and payable upon, for and in respect of letters, newspapers, parliamentary proceedings, and printed papers, transmitted and forwarded by the post, and various regulations were made for facilitating the transmission of such letters and papers by the post, and by the same Act powers were given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, and at any time thereafter, by Warrant, under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British postage or inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or of any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any of such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which might be payable were to be paid, and the power thereby given to alter and fix rates of postage was extended to any increase or reduction or remission of postage.

And whereas by an Act of Parliament, passed in the eighth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for the better regulation of colonial posts," power is also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Warrant, under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of colonial postage payable by law, for the transmission of letters by the post, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any of such altered rates, and make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof, and the rates of colonial postage from time to time to become payable under or by virtue of any such Warrant are to be charged and paid accordingly, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to appoint at what time the rates which might be payable are to be paid, and the power thereby given to alter and fix rates of postage was extended to any increase or reduction or remission of postage, and it was declared that the term "letter" should include post letters and packets, newspapers, votes and proceedings of the imperial parliament, and votes and proceedings of the legislatures of any of Her Majesty's colonies or provinces, pamphlets, and other printed papers.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by an Act of Parliament passed in the eleventh year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the post-office."

And whereas it is expedient to make regulations by which packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, may be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and Labuan, and to fix certain rates of postage and scales of weight at which such packets may be so transmitted in the manner hereinafter mentioned and contained.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers reserved to us in and by the said several before-mentioned Acts, or any or either of them, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners (by the authority of the statute in that case made and provided), order, direct, and declare as follows:

1. All packets consisting of books, publications, or works of literature or art, whether British, colonial, or foreign, and all packets consisting of printed votes and proceedings of the Imperial Parliament or the colonial legislatures, posted in the United Kingdom, addressed to Labuan, or posted in Labuan, addressed to the United Kingdom, may be transmitted by the post between the United Kingdom and Labuan, either direct or viâ any port or place in the East Indies; and all such respective packets shall be so transmitted in conformity with, and under and subject to, the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinafter mentioned and contained, and the single rate of postage for the transmission thereof shall be as follows; that is to say: for every such packet so transmitted, not exceeding four ounces in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, for such transmission thereof as aforesaid, an uniform single rate of postage of four pence.

2. All such packets so respectively transmitted as aforesaid, if exceeding four ounces in weight, shall be subject to the several further and additional and progressive rates of postage hereinafter mentioned, according to the scale of weight hereinafter contained; that is to say:

On every such packet if exceeding four ounces in weight, and not exceeding one half of a pound in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, two rates of postage.

And on every such packet if exceeding one half of a pound, and not exceeding one pound in weight, four rates of postage.

And on every such packet if exceeding one pound, and not exceeding one pound and one half of another pound in weight, six rates of postage.

And on every such packet if exceeding one pound and one half of another pound, and not exceeding two pounds in weight, eight rates of postage.

And for every additional half of a pound in weight of any such packet above the weight of two pounds, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, two additional rates of postage; and every fractional part of such additional half of a pound in weight shall be charged as an additional half of a pound in weight; and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such packet would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding four ounces in weight.

No such packet, which in length, or breadth, or width, shall exceed the dimensions of two feet, shall be forwarded by the post under the provisions aforesaid.

The terms "books, publications, or works of literature or art," in this Warrant used, shall for the purposes of this Warrant, mean and comprise all such articles as in their general character are either literary, or consist of printed, written, engraved, or lithographed matter (although not strictly literary), including books (whether printed, written, or plain), publications or compilations (whether in print or in manuscript), almanacks, printed or lithographed letters, and such artistic productions as prints, maps (whether on paper, or canvas, or cloth, and whether printed or written), and photographs, when not on glass or in frames containing glass, and any description of paper, parchment, or vellum (whether printed, lithographed, written upon, or plain, or any mixture of the four), together with any binding, mounting, or covering of, or upon, or belonging to any such article or production, or any portion thereof, or of or belonging to any paper, parchment, or vellum, and including also any cases or rollers of prints or maps, book markers (whether of paper or otherwise), pencils, pens, or other thing usually appertaining to any such article or production, paper, parchment, or vellum, or necessary for its safe transmission, which shall be sent in the same packet with any such article or production to which they or it shall belong. And all letters, notices, and other communications (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed, or partly lithographed, and partly written, which if wholly written would not be considered letters or communications in the nature of letters, shall and may be transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, But any letter, notice, or other communication (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed, or partly lithographed, and partly written, which if wholly written would be considered a letter, or a communication in the nature of a letter, shall not be entitled to the privilege of being transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant. Provided, nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall extend to authorize the sending by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, of any patterns, or books of patterns, or papers of patterns, of any article or thing whatsoever.

Every packet transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant, shall be sent open at the ends or sides, and either without a cover or in a cover or envelope, open at the ends or sides, and there shall be no written letter either closed or open, nor any written communication in the nature of a letter, either closed or open (whether such letter or communication be addressed to or intended for the person to whom the packet shall be directed, or to any other person), nor any enclosure sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, nor any other enclosure not authorized by this Warrant, sent in or with any such packet, nor shall there be any written letter or any written communication in the nature of a letter, in or upon any such packet, or on the cover or envelope thereof.

Upon every packet transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant, which shall be posted in the United Kingdom, the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted, not in money but by being duly stamped with the proper postage-stamp or stamps affixed thereto, which stamp or stamps shall in every case be affixed or appear on the outside of every such packet near the address or direction, and shall be of the value or amount of the postage duty payable thereon, under or by virtue of this Warrant, unless any such packet be sent from any department or office in or connected with the public service of Her Majesty, which shall keep a postage account with the General Post-office, in London, in which case the same shall be forwarded post paid, and the postage thereof shall be charged in such postage account, and upon every such packet transmitted by the post under the authority of this Warrant, which shall be posted in Labuan, the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted, either in money or by the proper colonial postage-stamp or stamps being affixed thereto.

3. In order to prevent any obstacles to the due and regular transmission of letters by the post, any officer of the Post-office, may delay the transmission of any packet posted or forwarded by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, either for the space of twenty-four hours after the time at which the same ought to be despatched in due course of the post, or (at his option), until the despatch of the mail next after that by which the same ought in due course of the post to be forwarded by him.

4. Nothing hereinbefore contained shall be construed to extend to interfere with, or in anywise to affect, any privileges relating to the transmission by the post of printed newspapers, or any printed publications which are allowed to pass by the post under the newspaper privilege; nevertheless any printed newspapers which are not authorized to be transmitted by the post under such privileges may be transmitted by the post at the rates of postage and under the regulations contained in this Warrant.

5. Every letter, notice, or other communication (whether upon paper, parchment, or vellum), partly printed or partly lithographed, and partly written, which if wholly written would be considered a letter or a communication in the nature of a letter, sent by the post, shall be deemed and considered to be a letter, or a communication in the nature of a letter, and shall be charged and chargeable with postage as a letter, and shall be transmitted by the post in conformity with, and under and subject to, the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions relating to letters posted and addressed in like manner.

6. If any question shall arise whether any such letter, notice, or other communication, as is last hereinbefore mentioned, is entitled to the privilege of a printed paper, so far as respects the transmission thereof by the post, or of being sent by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, or is chargeable as a letter, the same shall be referred to the determination of the Postmaster-General, whose decision thereupon shall be final.

7. If any packet, sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall in length, or breadth, or width, exceed the dimensions of two feet, or if any packet, or the cover or envelope of any packet, sent or tendered, or delivered in order to be sent, by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall not be open at the ends or sides, or if there shall be any written letter, or any written communication in the nature of a letter, in or upon any such packet, or on the cover or envelope thereof (whether such letter or communication be addressed to or intended for the person to whom the packet shall be directed or any other person), every such respective packet shall and may be detained and opened, and, at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof or be given up to the person to whom it shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination; and every such packet on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall be chargeable with the like amount of postage to which it would have been liable as a letter if the postage had been paid when posted, and such postage may be either paid by the sender or be charged to the person to whom such packet shall be forwarded.

8. If any packet sent, or tendered or delivered in order to be sent, by the post, under the provisions of this Warrant, shall contain any written letter or any written communication in the nature of a letter, whether closed or open, or any enclosure, sealed or otherwise closed against inspection, or any other enclosure not authorised by this Warrant, every such letter or communication or enclosure may be taken out by any officer of the post-office and either returned or given up to the sender thereof or forwarded to the address on the packet, charged in either case not only with the full rates of postage as an unpaid letter, but also with a further and additional rate of postage equal in amount to the single rate of postage chargeable under the provisions of this Warrant on a packet not exceeding four ounces in weight, and the remainder of the packet, if the postage be duly paid when posted, may be forwarded to the place of its address without any extra charge

9. If any packet sent, or tendered or delivered in order to be sent, by the post under the provisions of this Warrant (any such packet sent from any department or office in or connected with the public service of Her Majesty which shall keep a postage account with the General Post Office in London, and the postage thereof being charged in such account only excepted) shall be posted and the postage paid thereon or postage stamps affixed thereto at the time of the same being posted shall be less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet would be liable under and by virtue of the several regulations, orders, directions, and conditions hereinbefore contained, but equal in amount to the single rate of postage which would be chargeable under this Warrant if such packet did not exceed four ounces in weight, every such packet shall be forwarded charged with the amount of the difference between the postage so paid thereon, or postage-stamps affixed thereto, and the postage to which such packets would be liable as aforesaid, together with a further and additional rate of postage equal in amount to the single rate of postage chargeable, under this Warrant, on a packet not exceeding four ounces in weight; but if any such packet shall be posted without any postage having been paid thereon, or any postage-stamp affixed thereto, or with a postage paid thereon, or postage stamp affixed thereto, less in amount than the single rate of postage chargeable under this Warrant (any such packet sent from any department or office in, or connected with, the public service of Her Majesty which shall keep a postage account with the General Post-Office in London, and the postage thereof being charged in such account, only excepted), every such last-mentioned packet shall and may be detained and opened, and at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, or be given up to the person to whom it shall be addressed, or be forwarded to the place of its destination; and every such last-mentioned packet, on being so returned, given up, or forwarded, shall be chargeable with the like amount of postage to which it would have been liable as a letter if the postage had been paid when posted; and such postage may be either paid by the sender, or may be charged to the person to whom such packet shall be forwarded.

10. In all cases where any packet may be transmitted by the post, under the authority of this Warrant, and any such packet shall be transmitted not in conformity with the provisions thereof, and under and subject to the regulations, orders, directions, and conditions herein contained, and shall, by reason thereof, have become liable, under or by virtue of this Warrant, to be charged with the like rate or amount of postage to which it would have been liable as a letter if the postage had been paid when posted, or with any higher rate or amount of postage the Postmaster-General shall, and he is hereby authorized and empowered, at his discretion, either to charge any such packet with the rate or amount of postage to which it shall have become liable under or by virtue of this Warrant as aforesaid, or to charge any such packet with any other rate or amount of postage which he shall think proper, not exceeding the rate or amount of postage to which such packet shall have become liable, under or by virtue of this Warrant as aforesaid, not less that the rate of postage to which such packet would have been chargeable with if transmitted in conformity with the provisions hereof, and under and subject to the regulations, orders, directions and conditions herein contained.

11. The packets hereby authorized to be sent by the post under the provisions aforesaid, may be transmitted either by packet boat or private ship, or partly by packet boat or partly by private ship, at the same rate of postage as by packet boat.

12. All packets transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant shall be subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and rates of postage respectively contained in a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, under the hands of two of the said Commissioners, bearing date the 19th day of February, 1855, relating to redirected rates of postage upon letters and packets which shall be redirected, and again forwarded by the post.

13. The rates of postage chargeable on packets transmitted by the post, under the authority of this Warrant, shall be in lieu of any rates of British postage now chargeable by law thereon.

14. The term "by the post" used in this Warrant shall include the conveyance through Egypt, and shall, as to the sea conveyance, include the conveyance by any British or colonial packet boat and also by private ship, or partly by packet boat and partly by private ship, when sent in accordance with the eleventh clause hereinbefore contained, and the several other terms and expressions used in this Warrant, shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty.

15. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to any packet sent through France.

16. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may by Warrant, under their hands, or the hands of any two of them, at any time hereafter, alter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed or altered, or any of the orders, directions, regulations and conditions hereby made, and may make and establish any new or other rates, orders, directions, regulations and conditions in lieu thereof, and from time to time appoint at what time the rates which may be payable are to be paid.
